RELAXATION BENEATH THE SAILS

Prepare to embark on both an exciting sailing cruise and relaxed holiday: Our two tall ships SEA CLOUD and SEA CLOUD II combine the best of both worlds. Whilst our crew climb high up into the masts to set the sails by hand, down on deck our service team treat guests to a first-class service. Our elegant, exclusive yachts are the perfect place to experience the seamless combination of ancient seafaring tradition and a luxury modern-day break.

PASSIONATE ABOUT SAILING

A passion for exclusive tall ships and sophisticated indulgence has shaped the legacy of our two yachts since their creation. The American millionaire couple Edward F. Hutton and Marjorie Merriweather Post were already owners of several luxury vessels when, in 1929, they commissioned the construction of a new ship – one that would be larger and more extravagant than anything that had gone before. The legendary SEA CLOUD was born, a yacht whose beauty would, 70 years later, go on to inspire the building of its sister ship, the SEA CLOUD II. Yet as elegant as our two windjammers may be, these two vessels are imbued with sailing tradition: On these ships, sailing is not just for show – it is a true craft. When the orders ring out over the deck and the crew climb the masts to hoist the sails, every single manoeuvre marks a centuries-old ritual being brought to life.

TRULY AUTHENTIC, TRULY ROMANTIC

The sailing crew pull with all their power on a hemp rope that disappears into the rigging twenty metres above their heads. The mighty sails flap in the fresh sea breeze, starting a tug-of-war with the team down below. Flawlessly polished brass shines in the sunlight. Then with one final strong tug on the main halyard, the yacht is ready to feel the full force of the wind – mission accomplished! It takes our crew almost one hour to hoist the sails by hand, and it is a fascinating spectacle each and every time. Once firmly enveloped in a romantic tall ship setting, you will understand just why our vessels are the most beautiful part of the adventure; after all, a voyage aboard a majestic tall ship is much more than just a cruise.

GENUINE AND PERSONAL SERVICE WITH STYLE

Part of the unique appeal of a private yacht is the intimacy of the setting and that feeling of being amongst friends. The SEA CLOUD and the SEA CLOUD II offer our guests exactly the same experience thanks to their sophisticated yet relaxed atmosphere. Our crew of around 60 are there to ensure that all of our guests on board – a maximum of 94 travellers from all over the world – enjoy a unique cruise that is tailored to their needs. Our personal service and laid-back ambience allow you to enjoy an exquisite, five-star experience at your own pace.

ARRIVE, RELAX, ENJOY

The whistling of the wind as it blows past the halyard and the gentle sound of the sea will soon banish away the stresses and strains of your daily routine. Your inner sense of time is all that matters on board – a time that is not measured in seconds, but in magical moments. Let the day go by without a care in the world, chat with your fellow guests whilst admiring the view, listen in on an interesting lecture, watch the captain at work on the bridge – or simply let your mind wander like the clouds in the perfect blue sky.

FIVE-STAR INDULGENCE FOR YOUR SENSES

It is the little, finer things in life that turn a cruise into an extraordinary five-star experience. From the luxurious décor and the exquisite and creatively designed cuisine to our first-class service, on board the SEA CLOUD and the SEA CLOUD II we offer an exclusive holiday that is designed around you. Our entire crew take great pleasure in treating every guest to a unique experience, and in exceeding expectations time and time again.

EXCLUSIVE DÉCOR, CHARMING DESIGN

Our ships exude a classic maritime atmosphere that is as timeless as the ocean. This splendid on-board ambience is completed by the exquisite, carefully chosen décor – be it the comfortable deckchairs that pepper our vast, elegant teak wood decks, the fine wood features that exude warmth and comfort, or our tastefully designed outside cabins which offer each guest an unobstructed view of the sea. Our unique five-star style is also reflected in the countless small gestures and attention to detail shown by our staff. Welcome champagne awaits you in your cabin upon arrival, and you can end each day with selected bedtime sweets. The cabins are meticulously cleaned twice daily, your fruit basket is constantly kept replenished and the crew will welcome you back on board with a refreshment after each excursion. Aboard our ships your wish is our command. Our mission is to make all guests feel at home from the moment they set foot on board.

MORE THAN JUST A JOB: A TRUE CALLING

Ships were once the one and only passion of seafarers, and that still rings true for the crew on board the SEA CLOUD and the SEA CLOUD II today. For our staff, life on board both of our windjammers is more than just a job. You will find passion and a sense of belonging wherever you go on our ships: from the engine room to the masts, and from the bridge to the laundry room. Not only is their work pure perfection, it is also part of their identity. Many of our crew have been working together for years and form part of a well-established team. Each guest is welcomed into this passionate group of seafarers with a warm smile, and, with loving attention to detail and charm, each member of staff will help ensure that your journey on board is as unique as you.

CULINARY DELIGHTS AT SEA

From fresh croissants to perfectly cooked beef tenderloin, the chefs on board our two windjammers pour all of their creativity and skill into providing guests with culinary delights from morning until night. Their elaborate menus are complemented with regional specialities and always include a vegetarian option. Their exquisite dishes are served with the perfect accompaniment: outstanding, first-class wines – at no extra cost. Our sommelier is passionate about the finest quality wines, exploring the cellars of prestigious wine-makers to bring you the most delectable flavours.

A RELAXED DINING EXPERIENCE

On board everyone sits down to enjoy their meals together, but there is no fixed seating plan: As with any private yacht, you simply sit wherever and with whomever you choose, thus leaving room for interesting table discussions, whether indulging in a formal dinner in our restaurant or a lunchtime buffet or evening barbecue in the sun at the beautifully decorated tables on deck. Experience true luxury beneath the sails, as you set a course for complete relaxation on board the legendary SEA CLOUD or within the comfortable setting of the SEA CLOUD II.

SEA CLOUD

THE “LADY” OF ALL WINDJAMMERS

A self-assured grande dame, a stylish yet informal sailing icon and a generous host – the SEA CLOUD is a living legend. Built as a private luxury yacht, this ship combines extravagant charm with an authentic tall ship experience.

A PRIVATE YACHT WITH A FASCINATING HISTORY

Golden, swan-shaped taps, splendid marble fireplaces, French antiques – as heiress to a fortune totalling several million dollars, Marjorie Merriweather Post was able to let her imagination run free when it came to building her private yacht. In 1931 the “Hussar” (as the SEA CLOUD was originally named) was launched in Kiel. Together with her husband, the savvy stockbroker Edward Hutton, Marjorie turned this elegant four-masted barque into a stage for her eccentric lifestyle. Her friends included aristocracy and Hollywood stars, and politicians and diplomats often graced the decks of this windjammer.

WHERE INDULGENCE MEETS RELAXATION

Even today every detail on board this yacht shines with the glory of a bygone age. The SEA CLOUD's elegance appears timeless; proof that this vessel has lost none of its unconventional charm. Whether you are staying in one of its lovingly renovated original cabins, a cosy outside cabin or one of the former officers' cabins, the SEA CLOUD welcomes each guest on board like a long-standing friend. Rigid etiquette is nowhere to be found, not even in the oak-tabled restaurant. Sat at long tables, guests can enjoy the delicacies conjured up by the kitchen staff in a relaxed setting before retiring to a deck chair, to the lido bar or the cosy Blue Lagoon area for a moment of relaxation.

SEA CLOUD II

LUXURY CRUISE MEETS SAILING EXPERIENCE

Who says you cannot have it all? The tall ship SEA CLOUD II brings together the best of two worlds: This spacious three-masted barque offers all the amenities of a modern cruise ship whilst remaining a quintessential windjammer.

EXPANSIVE DECKS, GENEROUS CABINS AND MANY FAVOURITE PLACES

A cappuccino in the elegant lounge? A spot of sunbathing on the lido deck? A quiet moment with a book in the library? There are many favourite places to be discovered on board the SEA CLOUD II. This tall ship bears all the hallmarks of its older sister, the legendary SEA CLOUD, and yet still has a charm all of its own. With its four expansive decks, amenities such as a sauna, gym, boutique and swim platform, as well as the generous range of facilities on offer in its guest cabins, the SEA CLOUD II delivers five-star luxury which is sure to impress even seasoned cruise-goers.

A WINDJAMMER ADVENTURE BATHED IN ELEGANCE

“Set sail!” – Guests will momentarily crane their necks upwards when the captain of the SEA CLOUD II gives the order to embark. The crew’s climb up into the shrouds marks the beginning of a spectacle that is much more than just a show. The SEA CLOUD II is a celebration of true sailing. When the ship was built 15 years ago, we deliberately decided against a fully-automatic rig; this ship’s sails are hoisted and lowered the traditional way – by hand. This allows guests to enjoy the romantic tall ship experience in refined exclusivity. Our 29 de luxe outside cabins, 16 junior suites and two owner suites accommodate a maximum of 94 guests on this voyage of relaxation.

Atlantic and Canaries

The Canary Islands and the Atlantic coast of Spain and Portugal provide a multi-faceted experience, including art and culture, charming landscapes and a relaxed way of life. Magical Morocco will draw you into the world of the Arabian Nights.

Atlantic Ocean

Lesser Antilles and Cuba

Tropical forests and bathing paradises make the Lesser Antilles, located between the British Virgin Islands and the Grenadines, a wonderful place for sailing. Cuba enchants with its retro-style Caribbean flair.

Costa Rica and Panama

From mysterious Maya pyramids and colourful tropical landscapes to bustling cities and the technological brilliance of the Panama Canal – Central America is home to a range of fascinating attractions.

Northern Europe

Archipelagos and amazing fjords, gentle dune-covered landscapes and magnificent imperial architecture, picturesque canals and elegant vineyards – this is Northern Europe at its very best.

Western Mediterranean

Whether it be “dolce vita” or “savoir vivre” – the lifestyle on the coasts of Italy, Spain and France is one to cherish. Sunny islands, charming ports, quaint restaurants and historic locations provide the right setting for the Mediterranean way of life.

Eastern Med, Adriatic

A cruise through the Aegean and Adriatic Seas under a blue sky will take you back through the centuries: The itineraries feature the legendary Cyclades and Sporades islands, magnificent Baroque cities and impressive ancient sites.

CARIBBEAN AND CUBA

The Lesser Antilles run through the turquoise Caribbean Sea like a shimmering string of pearls. The waters between the British Virgin Islands in the north and the Grenadines in the south provide the perfect sailing conditions for windjammers as well as intriguing insights into a highly diverse range of cultures and lifestyles. Want to go on an excursion through tropical green forest to the volcanic sulphur springs? Why not enjoy an exquisite sundowner while watching elegant luxury yachts or perhaps go bare-footed into the beach bar? Fortunately there is no need to choose any particular highlight because every day will surprise you with a new and enjoyable feature.

Cuba really is the heart of the Caribbean. Cut off from the capitalist West, this is a country which has kept itself free of American fast food chains and flamboyant advertising and which always knows how to make a virtue out of necessity. Life here is all about being resourceful: In Havana's UNESCO-protected old town you will see colourful vintage cars, and people who cannot afford entry into an expensive club simply dance on the Malecón seafront promenade to the lively rhythms of street music.

CENTRAL AMERICA, PANAMA AND COSTA RICA

Narrow, little houses with gabled roofs, market stalls and small cafés serving “Eierkoek” – if it was not for the radiant rays of sun and the white, palm-fringed beaches, you could easily mistake this area for a Dutch province. That is because the three ABC islands of Aruba, Bonaire and Curaçao playfully engage with their colonial past, and with their blend of European tradition and Caribbean living, they serve up a colourful cocktail that is sure to put a smile on your face.

Nature lovers will encounter a vibrant, tropical paradise brimming with natural wonders in Panama’s and Costa Rica’s unique national parks. In the treetops of the evergreen rainforests, mangrove swamps and warm, crystal-clear waters, an abundance of fascinating animal species await. Follow this intensive natural encounter with a taste of urban life in trendy Panama City located close to the Panama Canal. Now over 100 years old, this construction is still considered one of the greatest feats in human engineering. The same is also often said of the mystical Maya temple structures found in Mexico and Belize. These mysterious places of worship, with their impressive stepped pyramids and artistic stone relief carvings, have lost none of their magical appeal over the past several millennia.

CANARY ISLANDS AND MOROCCO

Whilst autumn winds are blowing the leaves from the trees elsewhere, the Canary Islands still have many months of sunshine ahead. These “Islands of Eternal Spring” may all share the same pleasant climate, but each one impresses with its own inimitable beauty. Gran Canaria and Tenerife offer vast beaches and a vibrant urban scene, whilst on El Hierro, La Palma and La Gomera you can experience the serenity of Mother Nature. With fine sand dunes, such as those found on Fuerteventura, and the peculiar lava-sculpted landscapes of Lanzarote, the Canary Islands are one of the planet’s most intriguing places to explore by sea and offer an abundance of unique scenery and culture.

The Moroccan coast lies a mere 60 nautical miles away. With bustling souks, scents of oriental spices and elaborately designed sultan’s palaces, the ancient imperial cities of Rabat, Marrakesh and Taroudant instantly envelope visitors in a whirl-wind of bewitching sights, sounds and smells. This fairytale setting will leave you with memories that will last long after we have left port.

ATLANTIC COAST AND NORTHERN EUROPE

From the craggy archipelagos off the coast of Sweden to the golden cupolas of St Petersburg; from the picturesque fjords of southern Norway to the exclusive wine-growing regions of France and Spain – the countries along the Atlantic and Baltic coastline are extremely diverse in their appearance and character.

On board the SEA CLOUD II you can get a close-up view of Europe's most charming coasts from the sea. Our tall ship glides noiselessly past the red and white timber houses nestled in the rugged fjord landscape. It sails past lush green hillsides and towering chalk cliffs, following the old Hanseatic trade routes to the glamorous ports of the Baltic. No matter whether you want to experience the Nordic beauty of Stockholm or Tallinn or set off for the sun-kissed coasts of the Iberian Peninsula – the SEA CLOUD II will take you right to the heart of these cities. In summer 2015, our tall ship will be taking part in Sail Bremerhaven and Kieler Woche, allowing you to experience these two traditional sailing events live from the comfort of your deckchair.

WESTERN MEDITERRANEAN

Winding alleyways and elegant promenades, magnificent cathedrals and Moorish palaces, tranquil fishing villages and vibrant cities – the Western Mediterranean rewards travellers every day with new, exciting experiences. This region is not just a wonderful sailing area but also an enchanting place laden with history and stories, a lighthearted zest for life and dramatic landscapes.

From Andalusia to the Balearic Islands, from Corsica to the Côte d'Azur, from Sicily to the Amalfi Coast – our tall ships sail to the most beautiful destinations in Spain, France and Italy. What takes your fancy? A trip to a vibrant local market to try some of the region's olives? Mingling with luxury shoppers from the international jet set? Exploring the ruins of ancient temple complexes or hiking through pristine volcanic landscapes? There is no rush to decide. On board you will have plenty of peace and quiet in which to look forward to all the wide-ranging wonders of the Mediterranean.

ADRIATIC SEA

“Soft hues and chimes now fill the air. Lagoons light up with silver ray.” This is the description given by the Austrian writer Stefan Zweig in his poem about the sunrise in Venice. Indeed, as morning arrives and the Rialto Bridge, St Mark’s Square and the Doge’s Palace all come to life, an almost magical light comes over the Lagoon City. Venice is a living picture: Up until the 16th century, this was one of the world’s largest trading towns; its aristocracy accumulated immense wealth through trade in salt, cereals and amber, and created a perpetual legacy by building a number of magnificent palaces and churches.

Venetian influence can still be felt right across the Adriatic region, a territory that once belonged to the Republic of Venice. The thousands of small islands hold countless new experiences in store for you: from the palm tree-lined promenade at the seafront in Split to the red-brick rooftops of Dubrovnik; from the fragrant pine forests of Korcula to the Baroque facades in Lecce – there is more than just one pearl in the Adriatic. The region is crying out to be explored and is a feast for all the senses. Freshly caught fish, fruity olive oils and home-made plum brandy are available for you to try.

EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN

Just close your eyes and picture the perfect Greek island. What do you see? Perhaps radiantly whitewashed houses with deep blue doors, colourful wooden chairs in front of a small taverna, an idyllic harbour full of fishing boats? This vision becomes a reality in the Cyclades, the islands which boast a continuous picturesque landscape wherever you look. The Aegean islands are rich in their historic tradition and legendary in the truest sense of the word. Anyone sailing in these waters is bound to experience the islands all the more vividly.

After crossing into Turkish waters, the SEA CLOUD will continue on its voyage to fascinating ancient sites. The sun-bleached ruins of magnificent libraries, temples and theatres attest to the erstwhile prosperity of many port towns. The pace of life in Istanbul is quite different: This megacity is young, buoyant and innovative. It will draw you into to a whirl of cultures, eras and possibilities – with designer stores alongside bazaars and trendy bars which do not close until the muezzin makes the call to morning prayers.

MAKE THE JOURNEY YOUR DESTINATION

Who can resist the magic that envelops you aboard a windjammer? White sails, proud masts and a golden eagle on the bow almost immediately evoke that romantic feeling of longing for far-away shores and adventures in the ocean's vast expanse. Just beyond the horizon you will find dreamlike harbours, secluded bays and fascinating cities waiting to be discovered. Yet some people may want a more intensive tall ship experience than others. That is why we offer different types of travel. Those cruises which focus specifically on sailing have been marked with our small "sailing" symbol so that you can quickly and easily find the type of sailing holiday that best suits your ideal windjammer break.

EXPERIENCE LAND, SEA AND PEOPLE

The majority of our cruises offer a balanced mix of sailing time and exciting on-shore discoveries. Our windjammers mostly strike sail in places where picturesque harbours and anchorages invite you to set foot on land and to become acquainted with the local culture and way of life. It is the perfect opportunity to get out and discover more – either on your own or on one of our organised excursions.

DAYS AT SEA, NIGHTS IN PORT

On some of our sailing cruises our windjammers will only reach their destination late in the afternoon and will remain in port overnight. This means that sailing enthusiasts can spend many wonderful hours at sea whilst still having time in the evening to head off and explore each fascinating harbour town. A relaxed stroll through the port or old town is the perfect way to take in the local atmosphere.

WHEREVER THE WIND TAKES US

Do you savour the journey more than the destination? If so, you will probably be interested in one of our sailing cruises without a fixed itinerary. On these cruises, only the wind determines which route our majestic wind-jammer will take. Prepare yourself for the unexpected, no matter where the elements take us – our sailing routes are filled with atmospheric harbour towns and romantic bays that can be explored on individual trips ashore.

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC UNDER BILLOWING SAILS

The Atlantic crossing is the trip of a lifetime – and a wonderful experience for true sailing fans. Two whole weeks alone with the ocean, two whole weeks devoted to sailing: Embark on the famous Columbus route between the Canary Islands and the Caribbean and completely give yourself over to the elements – it is the perfect way to truly escape your everyday routine.

Sail with the summer trade winds and dreams of the Caribbean to the Grenadines and the ABC islands: Barbados – Curaçao

A day at the beach on the popular sailors' island of Bequia

The SEA CLOUD drops anchor in Admiralty Bay at Port Elizabeth on Bequia. It is the meeting place for round-the-world sailors and private luxury yachts. Our zodiacs bring you to the town or to one of the island's most beautiful beaches. You will have plenty of time for whatever you choose, be it swimming, snorkelling or taking a stroll.

Tobago Cays – a paradise for snorkellers

Far away from everyday life ashore lie five uninhabited islands surrounded by a turquoise sea, just waiting to be discovered. Their name? The Tobago Cays. Four of the islands are surrounded by a protective, horseshoe-shaped coral reef. This is an ideal place for snorkelling and a refuge for rare marine wildlife.

Idyllic sailing along the trade winds

Every day the crew climb up the masts to hoist the sails, and every hour the trade winds provide the tall ship with everything it needs to show just what it is made for – in an ideal sailing area. In winter and spring, the region's trade winds ensure perfect sailing conditions as well as a pleasant air and water temperature. The hours at sea become a feast for all who want to experience the freedom beneath white sails.

Fascinating underwater worlds, mysterious Maya sites and magical Cuban nights.

Several relaxing days at sea

Besides crossing worlds and discovering new lands, we let relaxation take a front seat on our yacht for four whole days. Plenty of time to enjoy life under the white sails and to be spoilt in every way.

The world's second largest coral reef

Maya cities in Mexico and Belize

The culture of the Maya, which began roughly 5,000 years ago and ended around the time of the Spanish conquest, is still a mystery. On our trip you will discover three Maya strongholds: Tulum in Mexico is the only Maya city situated on the coast; Altun Ha and Lamanai are in Belize. Lamanai remained populated for roughly 3,000 years. Excavations have revealed that over 20,000 people lived there around 700 AD.

Havana's Tropicana

Discover the place where Nat King Cole, Frank Sinatra and Josephine Baker took to the stage and where Edith Piaf, Ernest Hemingway and Marlon Brando applauded wildly in the audience: the legendary Tropicana in Havana. With its colourful shows, this cabaret nightclub is just as magical, vivacious and thrilling as it was when it opened back in 1939.

White sandy beaches, beautifully restored grandiose buildings and Maya ruins with a sea view: Havana – Havana

Historical Havana

Havana's old town is defined by its imposing fortresses, baroque churches and monasteries, palaces and wide squares, arcades and lively shopping streets. As well as being a UNESCO World Heritage Site, this is also a well-known place to spot vintage American cars and, thanks to the Malecón coastal road, one of the most popular promenades to stroll along as the sun sets.

Cuban beach heaven

On the Isla de la Juventud and in María la Gorda, the highlights are found in, on and under the water – solitary picture-perfect beaches with palm trees offering shade, a warm, gentle sea sparkling in numerous shades of blue, and a coral reef with perfect conditions for snorkelling.

The Maya site of Tulum

Gory sacrificial rites, a highly sophisticated calendar and mysterious architecture are just some of the many themes associated with the Maya culture. At the Mexican archaeological site of Tulum, a former ancient Maya trading centre, history comes to life in stunning surroundings – Tulum is the only ancient Maya site that lies directly on the coast.

Narrow old town alleys and wide beaches, relaxation on the water and fiery Cuban rhythms: Havana – Santo Domingo

Trinidad's old town

Trinidad de Cuba is a small, friendly place with a long history as a centre for sugar cane farming. Its charming coastal setting, lovingly restored facades and gentle pace of life can be experienced in any of the town's beautiful squares and in the narrow, historic alleyways. This small town has a well-deserved place on the UNESCO World Heritage Site list.

The spirited music of Cuba

If Cuba is the birthplace of almost every Latin dance style, then Santiago de Cuba is the stage on which they are performed. Nowhere else will you find so much live music or dancing. In the town's clubs, bars and dance schools you will find the rhythms of salsa, son, and rumba just as thrilling as in the world-famous Buena Vista Social Club. A band will also be performing on board.

Discover pirate hideaways, dive into the French lifestyle and drop anchor in front of a jungle panorama: Santo Domingo – Barbados

The famous seafarer hideouts of Bequia, Jost van Dyke and Virgin Gorda

Once, notorious pirates would hide out in the protected bays of these three Antilles islands. Now they are a haven away from the everyday hustle and bustle of life. You will find it easy to give in to the infectious joie de vivre here in the rustic beach clubs, in bars located beneath the palm trees, on beautiful beaches and in some of the most popular yacht clubs.

The savoir-vivre of the Îles des Saintes

This archipelago has been part of France since the 17th century. Overlooked by a historical fort, the charming small town of Terre-de-Haut offers spectacular unbroken views out over the surrounding bays. Its boutiques, bars, restaurants and cafés are perfect for a spot of browsing.

The jet set island of St Barts

St Barthélemy has had several masters: the Spanish, the Swedes, the French and the Knights of Malta. However, it is now firmly in the hands of the jet set crowd, who come here for short breaks to get away from it all. All of the yachts in the harbour are worth a look, as are the bars and restaurants.

The magnificent Pitons of St Lucia

Gros and Petit Piton, the two famous volcanic plugs that tower over St Lucia, could have come straight out of a tropical storybook. They are a UNESCO World Heritage Site and offer a spectacular panorama as the SEA CLOUD sails closely alongside their slopes.

Colourful rainforest, rousing rhythms and the scent of nutmeg and vanilla: Barbados – Barbados

Tobago: an island paradise

The small fishing village of Charlotteville is situated in Tobago's idyllic Man-O-War Bay and can only be reached by land via a steep road which cuts through the rainforest. With the ship anchored in the town's picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island's diverse birdlife or to plunge into the emerald-green waters.

A delight for all the senses: Grenada, the island of spice

There is a reason why nutmeg is immortalised on this country's national flag. Since colonial times nutmeg – along with cloves, cinnamon and ginger – has been one of the island's most important exports. If the aromatic fragrance of the tropics were to have a name, it would have to be "Grenada".

Snorkellers' paradise in the Tobago Cays

A unique feature of the Tobago Cays is its unspoilt coral reef, known as the "Horseshoe Reef" due to its shape. It keeps the Atlantic swells at bay and is the perfect place for snorkelling. Once back on dry land, you will be treated to a beach barbecue with culinary specialities.

Experience the Caribbean joie de vivre with string and steel bands

Be it salsa, merengue, soca, calypso or steel pan rhythms, all of these very different music styles have one thing in common – they all capture the heart and soul of the Caribbean. This music is sure to put a smile on your face and get everyone tapping their feet.

Tropical paradises, dreamy beaches and the haunts of the rich and beautiful: Barbados – Barbados

Stunning islands: St Lucia and Dominica

Although St Lucia is not considered a saint by everyone, the island is certainly the true queen of this idyllic realm. Even from a distance, its twin volcanic peaks, the Pitons, proffer a regal greeting to the approaching SEA CLOUD. And once we have docked, the island welcomes us with its lush tropical scenery. Dominica, unofficially dubbed “Nature Island”, is proud of its unspoilt scenery. One of its national parks is even a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Sailors’ favourite haunts

Small, elegant yacht clubs, picturesque anchorages, a selection of glorious beaches and quaint little beach bars where you can meet to discuss all manner of sailing adventures or simply while away the hours under a palm tree – all this and much more is on offer at the popular sailor hang-outs of Bequia, Virgin Gorda and Jost van Dyke.

The jet set island of St Barts

When the banker David Rockefeller came to this island in the 1960s, he realised one thing: that this is a great place to live. Since then, the small Antilles island of St Barthélemy has received an increasing number of celebrity guests and has now become a getaway for the rich and famous. Many Hollywood stars love to come here for a holiday retreat and enjoy taking a stroll along the quaint streets of Gustavia.

French flair on the Îles des Saintes

This small archipelago, which earned its place in history as the Gibraltar of the Caribbean, has been a great source of contention over the years. It finally became French territory in 1816. Nowadays, the only remnant of these troubled times is an old fort. Life here is peaceful and spiced with a touch of savoir-vivre. Take a stroll through the small town on the island of Terre-de-Haut with its shops and cafés.

The gentle pace of life in Cádiz

History comes alive in the city of Cádiz. One of Europe's oldest cities, this charming harbour town boasts a beautiful cathedral and baroque buildings, a tranquil old town and defiant watch towers. The town centre, with its delightful tapas bars, can be easily explored on foot from the harbour. And there is no shortage of good wine, as Jerez de la Frontera, with its sherry and wine cellars, is close by.

A fascinating mix in Valencia

Many bygone eras have left their mark on Valencia, but this historical legacy is juxtaposed with an impressive mixture of magnificent modern buildings. It is this vast spectrum that gives the city its unique appeal. The off-beat design of the opera house appears futuristic, with the building situated in an expansive museum and park district that stretches from the city centre all the way to the coast. A number of beautiful beaches are also located within the city.

A sailing trip to the colourful coastal regions of southern Italy and Sicily: Civitavecchia (Rome) – Malta

The picturesque Amalfi Coast

Violet bougainvillea gracing pastel-pink facades, houses perched upon cliffs like swallows' nests, perron stairs with views out over the turquoise sea – sometimes the Amalfi Coast almost seems too good to be true. But this region's colourful fishing village charm is definitely real, and in 1997 UNESCO declared the coast a World Heritage Site.

A stunning town with volcanic views: Taormina

Its list of admirers includes Goethe, Oscar Wilde and Liz Taylor. It seems the unique charm of Taormina in the north east of Sicily has always attracted famous summer visitors. One site that is particularly worth seeing is the town's Roman amphitheatre built in the 2nd century BC: From the "Teatro Greco" you can enjoy a heavenly panoramic view of Mount Etna and the Giardini Naxos Bay.

Malta's beautiful little sister: Gozo

The inhabitants of Gozo are visibly proud of their island, and it is not hard to see why: It may be seen as Malta's little sister, but it trumps the larger island with its greener, quieter and more romantic setting. In fact, you will not find even a trace of mass tourism here. Instead you will be greeted by rugged landscapes, historical temples and the "Azure Window", one of the most beautiful rock arches in the Mediterranean.

Tales of Greek history and legends – sail the seas of Odysseus: Malta – Piraeus (Athens)

Baroque splendour in Val di Noto

Magnificent facades, grand churches, splendid palaces and impressive gates: In Val di Noto one baroque masterpiece follows the next. An earthquake shook the region in 1693, and the architects charged with rebuilding used the opportunity to adorn the area with baroque beauty. A total of eight towns were rebuilt, and in 2002 they were collectively added to the UNESCO World Heritage Site list.

Experience Greek legends beneath white sails

Heroes of Greek mythology are no strangers to danger: Odysseus defied devastating storms, took on the Cyclops Polyphemos and encountered cannibals and sirens. He sailed the seas for ten years before finally finding his way back to his homeland of Ithaca. The SEA CLOUD will reach this destination after just one day at sea – before it heads off for the next adventure.

Ancient Mycenae

Mycenae is a town steeped in history and legend. When Heinrich Schliemann began excavating an acropolis site here in 1876, he discovered 13 kilos of golden treasure, including Agamemnon's alleged death mask. The monumental Lion Gate, the Cyclopean masonry and the Treasury of Atreus are what make Mycenae one of the most important archaeological sites in modern-day Greece.

Sail historical routes to the famous ancient towns and picturesque harbours of the Aegean: Piraeus (Athens) – Istanbul

Three significant excavation sites

It is almost like walking through an outdoor museum. Whether you are in Mycenae admiring its Lion Gate and Cyclopean masonry, or standing between the impressive white pillars of the Trajan temple in Pergamon, one thing is for sure: History comes to life in the Aegean. The town of Ephesus also offers a vivid insight into how life was in ancient times. The theatre, luxurious bath complexes and Library of Celsus stand as a testament to the prosperity that this town enjoyed for a thousand years.

The Jerusalem of the Aegean: Patmos

The idyllic island of Patmos is believed to be the place where John the Evangelist wrote the Book of Revelation. The grotto where he is said to have had his apocalyptic visions is one of the holiest sites for followers of the Greek Orthodox Church. The monastery built in his name has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The charming capital of the Cyclades

Ermoupolis, capital of the island of Syros and the entire Cyclades, was built on two hills and is a unique architectural accomplishment. A great number of monumental neo-classical buildings create the impression of a sophisticated city. As you ascend, you will witness the opulence and vastness of this construction give way to a maze of narrow passages, creating a more medieval atmosphere. But wherever you are in this city, you will see that the cafés and taverns are filled with Greeks alone and the hordes of tourists are nowhere to be seen.

Greek islands and cultural centres combining the ancient world and modern spirits: Istanbul – Piraeus (Athens)

Philippi: an ancient city

A walk through Philippi is a walk through the ages. Originally a Thracian settlement, the city was conquered around 355 BC by Philip of Macedon, the father of Alexander the Great, before it fell under Roman rule roughly 200 years later. It was here in around 50 AD that the Apostle Paul set up the first Christian congregation in Europe. The site's well-maintained amphitheatre still hosts plenty of performances and events.

Authentic Greece: the Sporades

Rebetiko music exuding from a tavern, craggy cliffs lining fine sandy beaches, chalk-white chapels gleaming under a deep-blue sky – does this Greek idyll actually exist? It certainly does on the Sporades! It is almost like a picture-perfect paradise, particularly on the island of Skopelos. Discover its narrow streets and small squares on a trip ashore.

Cultural highlights in Thessaloniki

Many tourists just see Thessaloniki as a stopover on their way to Greece's main holiday destinations. But Greece's second largest city has plenty to offer. Alongside the White Tower (the city's most famous landmark) and notable early Christian and Byzantine churches, Thessaloniki is also home to a multitude of interesting art and cultural establishments, such as the Archaeological Museum, the Ethnological Museum and the Museum for Contemporary Art.

Legendary gems on a journey to the Peloponnese and through the Adriatic: Piraeus (Athens) – Venice

Ithaca: Odysseus' mythical homeland

It took Odysseus years of sailing before he finally returned to his homeland Ithaca. Along the way he had outwitted giants, withstood the Sirens' call and fought sea monsters – suffice it to say he was in need of a rest, and Ithaca, with its unspoiled landscape and quiet way of life, instantly offered the perfect haven. It still does. Ithaca is considered an insider tip amongst the rich and famous: For those who are looking to spend their honeymoon far away from the glare of the paparazzi and fellow tourists, this place is ideal.

The Florence of the South: Lecce

Lecce, situated on the heel of the Italian boot in the ruggedly romantic Apulia region, is considered one of the most beautiful towns in southern Italy. Thanks to a special form of tuff stone, the site became a splendid baroque town in the late medieval period with its richly decorated facades gleaming in white and gold. In the port town of Otranto there is no better way to see out the day than with a stroll through the lively old town or along the beach promenade.

Culinary Istria

Even in ancient times, Istrian olives were famed for their special flavour. Nowadays, the region's multi-award winning olive oil is prized by connoisseurs. Also much sought after among gourmets is the "white gold", otherwise known as the white truffle. On a culinary excursion you will experience many of the region's specialities.

A short cruise from the world famous lagoon city to the fascinating towns of the Adriatic: Venice – Venice

An enchanted farewell to Venice

No other farewell is as romantic and melancholic as the route taken by the SEA CLOUD as it leaves this lagoon-based city. Our tall ship slowly sails past all of Venice's famous buildings and offers a panoramic view of the magnificent St Mark's Square, the Campanile, the Bridge of Sighs and the Doge's Palace.

A short break from everyday life

You do not need to take a three-week holiday to get away from it all and clear your mind: On the SEA CLOUD you will experience relaxation from the moment you step on board. The everyday grind will feel a million miles away on our sun deck, and the vast expanse of sea will rejuvenate your spirit – all while your smartphone takes a break of its own in the cosy cabin below.

Trieste – a port town with unmistakable charm

The harbour is the beating heart of Trieste. Even in Roman times, this Italian city on the Slovenian border was considered an important maritime town. Its rapid rise began with the Holy Roman Emperor Charles VI's decision to proclaim the city as a Free Port. Trieste went on to become the largest centre for trade in the Adriatic. Today the white Miramare Castle still stands as a testament to the splendour of the Danube Monarchy.

Famous sites and undiscovered treasures on both sides of the Adriatic: Venice – Venice

Culinary Istria

Even in ancient times, Istria's wine and olives were reputed to be among the best, and today their olive oils are still considered some of the world's finest. Those who have tried the Malvasier wine praise its aromatic freshness. And food connoisseurs can look forward to tasting a real delicacy in the form of white truffles.

The Krka waterfalls

Mother Nature has carved out an extraordinary and wildly romantic water scene in the Krka National Park: Pools of foam emerge as the emerald green waters of the Krka River rush over the cliff edges of the park's eight waterfalls. Paved hiking trails take you through this stunning wood and park landscape.

An ancient multicultural city: Trieste

Trieste's colourful history is reflected in its cuisine: From palatschinke to souvlaki, prosciutto to baccalà mantecato, the town has been shaped by the culinary influences of Austria, Istria and Greece. Trieste has long been considered a cultural melting pot; once a key port on the Slovenian border, it used to attract merchants from all over the world.

Undiscovered Croatia

With its perfect mix of magnificent bays, romantic architecture and wild nature, Croatia is definitely in vogue amongst holidaymakers. Hvar, Trogir and Sibenik are slightly outside of the usual routes taken by large cruise ships and attract smaller yachts. In the area's picturesque coastal towns you can take a relaxed stroll through the old town centres and admire the mix of Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance and baroque architecture.

A sailing cruise in the Adriatic – crystal clear sea, picturesque bays and a true windjammer experience: Venice – Malta

Sail wherever the wind takes you

On this trip our legendary tall ship will show you exactly what it was born to do, with nothing but the wind determining its course and the captain obeying its orders. Just how many knots can the SEA CLOUD get up to? At how many ports will it call? You will find the answers on each hour and each one of the seven days at sea.

Just one goal: relaxation

For eight whole days you can enjoy your trip without any organised stops, schedules, or timetables. The freedom you experience beneath the sails knows no bounds; here you will find the perfect place to relax. Time passes slowly as you effortlessly unwind and relaxation takes hold.

Time for unique shore excursions

Although the most important part of a sailing cruise is the experience on board a windjammer, some interesting destinations also await you on land. The Adriatic has an abundance of attractive port towns and charming cities with a diverse history. Their historic centres with small shops and cafés are best explored during a relaxing walk.

Impressive culture and enchanting landscapes on Sicily, Sardinia and the Balearic Islands: Malta – Barcelona

Sicily's many faces

The largest of the Mediterranean islands is a fabulously diverse microcosm in its own right with its rich cultural history, which dates back 3,000 years with memorials marking each era, with Europe's highest and most active volcano, Mount Etna, and with towns and villages featuring a character and flair all of their own.

Bathed in gold: the Cappella Palatina and its mosaics

At the highest point of the medieval town centre in Palermo lies a castle whose roots can be traced back to the Normans. From the outside this building seems imposing and spellbinding, but its interior charm is truly breathtaking – especially the “Cappella Palatina” and its design with Arab, Byzantine and Norman influences. Stained glass and gold mosaics on the walls, a wooden ceiling richly adorned with Arab ornaments, and an artistic marble floor are what give this former Palazzo Reale Chapel Royal its dream-like fairy-tale atmosphere.

Menorca – the pristine Balearic island

From the rugged mountain region of Tramuntana in the north of the island, with its steep coastal areas, to gentle rolling hills and vast sandy beaches in the south – Menorca's natural beauty has many faces. If you like the romantic setting of ancient narrow passageways, you will find just what you are looking for in Ciutadella, the island's former capital.

The sultans' palaces, the magic of oriental markets, the beautiful Canary Islands and the expansiveness of the Atlantic: Málaga – Las Palmas

The imperial city of Rabat

Rabat, the capital of Morocco, is one of the country's four imperial cities. Rabat's iconic landmark, the Hassan Tower, was built when the city was capital of the Sultanate. The tower is now located within one of the city's upmarket residential areas. With its various districts, this is a city of many faces. The traditional souk with its surrounding wall can still be found in the old town, and the Ville Nouvelle offers up magnificent roads and Art Deco buildings.

Magical Marrakesh

Snake charmers and fortune tellers, jugglers and spice traders – the Djamaa el-Fna market place is the hotspot for everything that makes Marrakesh a living fairytale. The red facades lining the maze of oriental streets conceal magnificent mosques, cool courtyards and luxurious gardens. One hallmark of the people here is their warm hospitality, which often finds expression in a cup of sweet tea.

The perfect mix of culture, sailing, and relaxation

If you want to combine the magic of Arab architecture with the enjoyment of relaxing out at sea, and you love breathtaking scenery as much as the joy of sailing, this trip has the ideal mix for you. Take the time to make the most of each of the activities on this perfectly balanced itinerary.

Together with the SEA CLOUD II around the Canary Islands: Las Palmas – Las Palmas

Two tall ships, one course

The younger sister of the SEA CLOUD, the SEA CLOUD II, joins us out at sea. Both ships sail together through the islands of the Canaries, making for a truly magnificent sight! The SEA CLOUD II even invites you aboard for a visit in the port of San Sebastián de La Gomera.

The white sails take centre stage

Each day the SEA CLOUD leaves its anchorage and delivers a spectacle like no other: The crew comes onto the deck, the orders ring out, and the tall ship's sails are hoisted. For hours on end the only master is the wind and the elements. Let your imagination take flight, as the SEA CLOUD will not reach another port until afternoon.

The authenticity of the Canaries

Unlike their more famous neighbours in the east of the archipelago, the islands of El Hierro, La Gomera and La Palma have always been better suited for individual travellers. This is where you can enjoy nature at its very best: These volcanic islands impress with their unique flora and fauna and boast rugged rocky landscapes, evergreen cloud forests, metre-high ferns and bizarre-looking dragon trees.

Where wildly colourful underwater worlds, rousing Caribbean rhythms and enticing fragrances captivate the senses: Barbados – Barbados

Tobago: an island paradise

The small fishing village of Charlotteville is situated in Tobago's idyllic Man-O-War Bay and can only be reached by land via a steep road which cuts through the rainforest. With the ship anchored in the town's picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island's diverse birdlife or to plunge into the emerald-green waters.

A delight for all the senses: Grenada, the island of spice

There is a reason why nutmeg is immortalised on this country's national flag. Since colonial times nutmeg – along with cloves, cinnamon and ginger – has been one of the island's most important exports. If the aromatic fragrance of the tropics were to have a name, it would have to be "Grenada".

Snorkellers' paradise in the Tobago Cays

A unique feature of the Tobago Cays is its unspoilt coral reef, known as the "Horseshoe Reef" due to its shape. It keeps the Atlantic swells at bay and is the perfect place for snorkelling. Once back on dry land, you will be treated to a beach barbecue with culinary specialities.

Experience the Caribbean joie de vivre with string and steel bands

Be it salsa, merengue, soca, calypso or steel pan rhythms, all of these very different music styles have one thing in common – they all capture the heart and soul of the Caribbean. This music is sure to put a smile on your face and get everyone tapping their feet.

Wonderful jungles and elegant lifestyle, colourful underwater worlds and aromatic spices.

Tobago: an island paradise

The small fishing village of Charlotteville is situated in Tobago's idyllic Man-O-War Bay and can only be reached by land via a steep road which cuts through the rainforest. With the yacht anchored in the town's picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island's diverse birdlife or to plunge into the emerald-green waters.

Grenada – the island of spice

Although Grenada has been blessed with around 45 picture-perfect beaches, the country's real treasure remains its lush, green island interior. Deep volcanic lakes, dense rainforests, waterfalls and small river courses form the primordial backdrop of the island's sugar cane fields and spice plantations. It is the reason why the scent of cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg hangs in the air wherever you go on Grenada.

Snorkellers' paradise in the Tobago Cays

For many, life under water is a fascinating world – one that becomes even more magical the closer you get. The Tobago Cays' Horseshoe Reef is such a place. This horseshoe-shaped coral reef encloses four small islands that glow in rich shades of green. The sea, in contrast, embraces turquoise, emerald and every shade of blue.

The natural beauty spots of St Lucia and Dominica

The pitons of St Lucia are world famous and magnificently beautiful. But perhaps even more beautiful is the unique view you have of this stunning natural masterpiece from the SEA CLOUD's anchorage. Dominica is one of the wildest and most primal of the Lesser Antilles. The heart of the island is covered in thick virgin forest, where you will find plunging rivers and small creeks winding their way through the jungle.

The jet set island of St Barts

Although many like to call it "St Barts" for short, the island's official name is St Barthélemy. Having passed through several different owners, the land was finally bought by France in 1877 and is now firmly in the hands of the jet set. Elegant Gustavia entices with classy goods and glamour hidden away behind restored facades, and the harbour hosts luxury yachts with famous owners.

"The Baths" – imposing granite formations

It is sometimes easy to think that this is one of nature's fairy tales: Once upon a time, there was a giant who played with large stone marbles. His favourite playground was in Virgin Gorda, a place now called "The Baths" – a gigantic rock labyrinth made out of circular-shaped granite.

A lecturer accompanies the trip

Knowledge, entertainment and facts – our expert is on hand to give talks on a wide variety of specialist subjects. He will also be on board to answer any questions that you may have.

The bathroom, approx. 4 m²/43 sq ft in size, features a bathtub.

■ De luxe original cabin N° 4 (Cat. B)

■ De luxe original cabin № 7 (Cat. B)

This room was once home to Dina, the daughter of the previous owners. The furniture, made of sophisticated maple, features mahogany inlays. The sailing adventure of your dreams – crossing the Atlantic on a hand-sailed windjammer: Las Palmas – Antigua

15 days beneath the sails

The wind in your hair, an endless horizon, the rush of the sea; an Atlantic crossing delivers a feeling of complete regeneration. Let the elements take control as the SEA CLOUD II sets sail across the ocean, leaving the stresses and strains of everyday life in its wake. The Atlantic crossing is the last of the great adventures.

Cruise along the Columbus route

When Columbus and his flotilla sailed westwards across the Atlantic in 1492, hoping to reach East Asia, they followed the currents and winds of the trade winds region. Today, the SEA CLOUD II continues to embark on the same course for the New World as the passage offers perfect sailing conditions.

Also on board: circumnavigator Burghard Pieske

Burghard Pieske actually studied geography and education, but he has also qualified as a ship's captain. Since he spent ten years sailing around the world, he has been focusing on reliving authentic historic sailing adventures. He is an author, adventurer and freelancer for "Yacht" magazine.

Depending upon the circumstances, it is possible that another lecturer will be on board for this trip.

Sail the idyllic waters of the Lesser Antilles – from picture-perfect beaches to a famous jet set island: Antigua – Antigua

The British Virgin Islands – a sailors' paradise

In the waters surrounding the British Virgin Islands, where explorers and pirates once roamed, you will find some of the finest sailing conditions on the planet. These islands include Virgin Gorda, Jost van Dyke and all the tiny islands around the Sir Francis Drake Channel, each marked by glorious beaches and delightful anchorages.

Day at the beach with barbecue on Jost van Dyke

The word "stress" does not exist on Jost van Dyke. The zodiac takes you to the shore where you can go snorkeling, swimming or indulge in other water-based activities. After that, a beach barbecue in "Ivan's Stress-Free Bar" awaits you.

"The Baths" – imposing granite formations

It is sometimes easy to think that this is one of nature's fairy tales: Once upon a time, there was a giant who played with large stone marbles. His favourite playground was in Virgin Gorda, a place now called "The Baths" – a gigantic rock labyrinth made out of circular-shaped granite.

The jet set island of St Barts

Its official name is St Barthélemy, but most people fondly refer to it as St Barts. It was back in 1957 that the banker David Rockefeller built the first paradise getaway here, and today the island remains a hideout for the jet set, including several American film stars. Take a stroll through the capital Gustavia, browse the shops for treasures and specialities, or enjoy a sundowner in the harbour surrounded by bars, cafés and restaurants.

Scenic beauties and idyllic bays, relaxed beach bars and the French way of life: Antigua – Barbados

Anguilla's idyllic beaches

As the most northerly of the Leeward Islands, Anguilla is slightly off the usual tourist trail – and that is exactly what makes it so special. You will be carried away from the stresses and strains of daily life. In a place where the gentle summer breeze caresses white sandy beaches and the sun sparkles on turquoise waters, relaxation will take hold in less time than it takes to open your favourite book.

The savoir-vivre of the Îles des Saintes

This archipelago has been part of France since the 17th century. Overlooked by a historical fort, the charming town of Terre-de-Haut presents you spectacular views of the surrounding bays. Its boutiques, bars, restaurants, and cafés are also definitely worth exploring.

Sailing along the trade winds

"Trade winds" is the name given to the powerful currents of air that great seafaring nations used to rely upon to carry their fleets across the Atlantic. Today they are one of the reasons why the Lesser Antilles have become a paradise for sailing enthusiasts. It is easy to see why one of the world's most famous sailing regattas, the Antigua Race Week, takes place here: The warm trade winds that blow around the Leeward Islands mean sailors constantly have the wind in their sails.

Our zodiacs bring you to the town or to one of the island's most beautiful beaches. You will have plenty of time for whatever you choose, be it swimming, snorkelling or taking a stroll.

A delight for all the senses: Grenada, the island of spice

There is a reason why nutmeg is immortalised on this country's national flag. Since colonial times nutmeg – along with cloves, cinnamon and ginger – has been one of the island's most important exports. If the aromatic fragrance of the tropics were to have a name, it would have to be "Grenada".

Dreamy Caribbean sailing trip between tropical bays, city life and strolls along the beach.

Tobago: an island paradise

The small fishing village of Charlotteville is situated in Tobago's idyllic Man-O-War Bay and can only be reached by land via a steep road which cuts through the rainforest. With the ship anchored in the town's picturesque bay, you will have plenty of time to discover the island's diverse birdlife or to plunge into the emerald-green waters.

Idyllic sailing along the trade winds

In winter and spring the Caribbean trade winds provide ideal speeds and perfect stability, while delivering extremely pleasant air and water temperatures. The many hours out at sea will turn into a real joy for the tall ship, and a delight for those looking to enjoy freedom beneath the sails. All this in stunning waters.

A day at the beach on the popular sailors' island of Bequia

The SEA CLOUD II drops anchor in Admiralty Bay at Port Elizabeth on Bequia. It is the meeting place for round-the-world sailors and private luxury yachts. Our zodiacs bring you to the town or to one of the island's most beautiful beaches. You will have plenty of time for whatever you choose, be it swimming, snorkelling or taking a stroll.

A delight for all the senses: Grenada, the island of spice

There is a reason why nutmeg is immortalised on this country's national flag. Since colonial times nutmeg – along with cloves, cinnamon and ginger – has been one of the island's most important exports. If the aromatic fragrance of the tropics were to have a name, it would have to be "Grenada".

Trip to the ABC islands

Aruba, Bonaire and Curaçao – the alphabet of the Caribbean begins with these three islands off the coast of Venezuela. The ABC islands are considered the "Netherlands of the Caribbean", and their Dutch colonial past is still visible in the pastel-coloured architecture. There are plenty of colours on show underwater, too: Their breathtaking biodiversity renders these three island beauties a Mecca for water sports fans.

Panama City and the Panama Canal

When the Panama Canal opened in 1914 after more than 30 years of construction, it allowed ships sailing between New York and Los Angeles to shorten their route by almost 15,000 kilometres (9,320 miles). Panama City has experienced enormous growth ever since. The contrast between its ultra-modern banking centre and lovingly restored historic quarters is what makes the city Central America's style capital.

Dutch idylls, timeless cruising with the trade winds and the booming metropolis of Panama City: Curaçao – Puerto Limón (San José)

In winter and spring the Caribbean trade winds provide ideal speeds and perfect stability, while delivering extremely pleasant air and water temperatures. The many hours out at sea will turn into a real joy for the tall ship, and a delight for those looking to enjoy freedom beneath the sails. All this in stunning waters.

Visit two of the ABC islands: Aruba and Curaçao

Aruba and Curaçao make up the A and C of the ABC islands and belong to the Kingdom of the Netherlands. Their distinctive features – including Delft tiles, Dutch gable houses, palms and the pastel colours of the Caribbean – make this an enchanting destination. Curaçao boasts a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the shape of its small capital Willemstad.

Where windjammers are in their element, the jet set relax on the beach, and green volcanoes jut into the sea: Antigua – Barbados

The British Virgin Islands – a sailors' paradise

Days spent lounging in the sun, moving with the trade winds, small islands floating on the horizon and a tall ship with timelessness entangled in its sails; you will enjoy a relaxing feast for the senses aboard the SEA CLOUD II. Watch in amazement as the crew manoeuvre the ship before dropping anchor on a new shore.

A day at the beach on Jost van Dyke

Jost van Dyke is the smallest of the major British Virgin Islands. This mountainous island is noted for its volcanic beauty and its beach, the White Bay, which certainly lives up to its name. We take the zodiac ashore to enjoy a wonderfully relaxed day. A beach barbecue at "Ivan's Stress-Free Bar" will offer some tasty delights.

The jet set island of St Barts

St Barthélemy has had several masters: the Spanish, the Swedes, the French and the Knights of Malta. However, it is now firmly in the hands of the jet set crowd, who come here for short breaks to get away from it all. All of the yachts in the harbour are worth a look, as are the bars and restaurants.

The magnificent Pitons of St Lucia

Gros and Petit Piton, the two famous volcanic plugs that tower over St Lucia, could have come straight out of a tropical storybook. They are a UNESCO World Heritage Site and offer a spectacular panorama as the SEA CLOUD II sails closely alongside their slopes.

A short break to lively cultural centres along the Iberian Peninsula: Lisbon – Valencia

A short break from the daily grind

The Iberian Peninsula enjoys the onset of the warmer seasons a few weeks earlier than Central Europe, which means that April is the perfect time of year for a short getaway. It is a great opportunity to leave your normal surroundings and everyday routine behind, and to completely recharge your batteries.

An enchanted farewell to Lisbon

You will be treated to unique panoramic views of the Tagus as the SEA CLOUD II pulls out of Lisbon. The epic Monument to the Discoveries is dedicated to Henry the Navigator. The Torre de Belém, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, celebrates the country's glory during its time as a colonial power.

The gentle pace of life in Cádiz

History comes alive in the city of Cádiz. One of Europe's oldest cities, this charming harbour town boasts a beautiful cathedral and baroque buildings, a tranquil old town and defiant watch towers. The town centre, with its delightful tapas bars, can be easily explored on foot from the harbour. And there is no shortage of good wine, as Jerez de la Frontera, with its sherry and wine cellars, is close by.

Málaga: a cultural capital

Andalusia's second largest city passed largely unnoticed for a number of years, but has recently blossomed into a vibrant city of art and culture. Málaga's ascent began with the opening of the Picasso Museum in 2003, which was followed by the Carmen Thyssen Museum and the Museum of Fine Arts. With its superb range of architecture, a stroll through the city's old town instantly turns into a tour of cultural discovery.

Whether you want to explore the charming towns of the south or simply feel the gentle May breeze in your hair, on this short break, relaxation will take hold from the moment you step on board.

The small artist town of Collioure

The charm of the fishing village of Collioure has always been an inspiration for painters such as Picasso and Matisse. Those following in their footsteps today will see the artists' motifs almost perfectly reflected in the landscape.

Art and culture in Aix-en-Provence

The city's cathedral with its beautifully carved doors, the Atelier Cézanne, Baroque facades – there is no shortage of captivating sights for culture lovers in Aix-en-Provence. And yet this old provincial capital still has much more to offer than just history. Aix is wonderfully vibrant, and its inhabitants know how to enjoy themselves; with the city's countless small cafés and patisseries, it is easy to see why.

Sun-filled spring days on the Iberian Peninsula and in the south of France: Lisbon – Nice

Leaving Lisbon in the footsteps of great explorers

The harbour of Portugal's capital city was the starting point for the great voyages of discovery led by Vasco da Gama, Pedro Cabral and Bartolomeu Dias. Setting foot aboard a windjammer and following in their wake on your way to new adventures is a wonderful feeling.

Explore undiscovered Málaga

To say Málaga's history is multifaceted is a bit of an understatement: The Moors built their fort on the remains of a Phoenician Palace, whilst the settlement's Christian conquerors built their cathedral on the ruins of a mosque. More recently, Málaga has really come into its own as a city; the houses of its beautiful old town and the harbour, along with its promenade, radiate a fresh splendour.

Valencia – lively, dynamic, traditional and modern

There are not many cities that can claim to combine modernity with over 2,000 years of history quite as magnificently as Valencia does. There is perhaps no other city that has succeeded in integrating a new, avant-garde quarter so seamlessly into its centre.

Savoir vivre beneath the plane trees: Aix-en-Provence

Aix-en-Provence is considered one of France's most beautiful cities. This sunny university town not only attracts students, but also artists and creative types – which explains why so many cafés and bars are situated along the Cours Mirabeau. This main boulevard is covered by plane trees and lined with elegant buildings from the 17th century, along with quaint, little bookshops and boutiques. Très charmant!

Those who wish can make use of the gym facilities, treat themselves to a massage, or let the sails and their imagination carry them away to new shores. As soon as we cast off, you will feel the stresses and strains of everyday life melt away – we doubt any other short break could be this enjoyable.

Bruges: a historic city

Narrow alleyways overlooked by medieval gables, patisseries exuding the aroma of chocolate and freshly baked goods, romantic canals and avant-garde architecture – Bruges enchants with its mix of tradition and lively culture. A relaxed walk is the perfect way to discover the historic old town, one of UNESCO's World Heritage Sites.

A long weekend in southern Norway

A long weekend could hardly be more relaxing: From Hamburg, the SEA CLOUD II heads towards the North Sea, where it spends a full summer's day at sea before arriving at the rugged Norwegian coast whose charming ports are perfect for strolling around.

Oslo, a trendsetting royal metropolis

Our tall ship glides past small rocky islands and dark-red wooden houses through the majestic Oslofjord to the Norwegian capital city. As well as the historical buildings such as the Royal Palace, the fortress and the huge cathedral, it is also worth visiting the trendy modern quarter – home to a young generation of artists, architects and restaurateurs – where you can discover a new side to the city. Treasures of the tsars and royal houses, Hanseatic cities and the famous Kieler Woche sailing event: Kiel – St Petersburg

A top-class sailing event: Kieler Woche

Attended by around three million guests from all over the world and featuring various sailing regattas and a bustling fair, Kieler Woche is a world-class sailing event. The SEA CLOUD II will join the traditional tall ship parade.

Stockholm and its archipelago

On mild summer evenings, Sweden's capital city exudes a Mediterranean joie de vivre. Stockholm is creative and in tune with nature, welcoming and historical, a shopping paradise and home of the Royal Palace. Upon departure in the morning, you will be greeted by an idyllic view of the old town island before entering the enchanting world of the skerry landscape and its 30,000 islands.

St Petersburg – the old city of the tsars

In 1703, Tsar Peter the Great tasked the best architects of his day with the planning of a perfect and harmonious city. The result was one of the most brilliant cities of old Europe. Thanks to its abundance of unique buildings, including the Church of the Resurrection, St Isaac's Cathedral, the Hermitage and the Catherine Palace, the old capital city of the Russian Empire is still considered to be an architectural marvel today.

Cruise through the spectacular fjord landscape of southern Norway to “Sail Bremerhaven” – the great windjammer festival: Oslo – Hamburg

The impressive Norwegian fjords

Over several ice ages, the incredible force of Mother Nature carved narrow valleys in the rocks of southern Norway, leading to the formation of spectacular landscapes: the majestic fjords. Each and every one of them is definitely worth seeing: In the Oslofjord you will sail past small landing stages and colourful wooden houses, the Lysefjord boasts the impressive Preikestolen plateau, towering at an altitude of over 600 metres, and the Hardangerfjord is adorned by a wide range of fruit trees thanks to its mild climate.

Moster and its historic church

Having spent several years involved in Viking raids, Olaf Tryggvason returned to Norway in the year 995 in order to claim the throne. In the small harbour town of Moster he held a mass, established Christianity as the country's new religion and had a church built on that spot. With its square chancel and rectangular nave, the white church in Moster is one of Norway's oldest churches.

“Sail Bremerhaven” – the great windjammer festival

Kippers, cutters and launches, Viking longships and old steamers – as we arrive for “Sail Bremerhaven”, the Weser estuary is abound with vessels of all kinds. The city of Bremerhaven and the art of seafaring are closely linked by tradition. More than 250 large ocean-going sailing vessels were built in the city's shipyards until 1926. It therefore comes as no surprise that this seaport hosts one of Europe's major windjammer events every five years.

Sylt – Germany's most famous island

North Sea waves, mudflats, the "Rote Kliff", sand dunes as far as the eye can see, wide sandy beaches and traditional captain's houses – Germany's most famous island is certainly known for its romantic natural beauty. And it sometimes makes headlines for other reasons too; since the 1960s Sylt has been a summer retreat for the rich and famous. Celebrities can be spotted visiting Germany's most famous fish stand, sauntering through the resort of Kampen, and hanging out in elegant bars and exclusive clubs.

Young pianists, exclusive concerts and relaxation beneath the sails – the Steinway cruise for music lovers.

At Steinway every piano is a masterpiece

For many the Steinway name is synonymous with the piano – and for good reason, as ever since Henry E. Steinway and his sons founded their company in New York in 1853, Steinway & Sons has produced first-class pianos, every one of which is a masterpiece with character. Attention to detail and passion for innovation mean that Steinway is today considered to be the founder of modern piano manufacturing.

Promoting a new generation of pianists

Steinway & Sons is committed to promoting young pianists and supports them through the Steinway Prize-winner Concert Network. Although many young musicians have a great deal of talent and flair, they mostly remain unknown in the music world. This is where Steinway comes into play: Highly talented musicians are selected in first-class piano competitions and are given the opportunity to introduce themselves to a broad audience at international performances.

Emerging talents

What could be more exciting than witnessing the career of a great artist from the outset? Two young prize winners selected by Steinway will accompany the SEA CLOUD II cruise from Hamburg to Bilbao and treat guests to a diverse musical programme on board. However, top-class musical performances are not just waiting for you at sea: In Hamburg/Germany and in Pauillac/France, guests can enjoy two exclusive piano concerts from exceptional musicians in a stylish ambience.

The panoramic trip along the Elbe

The SEA CLOUD II departs from Hamburg's harbour and glides along the Elbe at a leisurely pace. On the way, you will pass the Elbchaussee's patrician villas, the stair-lined district of Blankenese, the Airbus territory and all the picturesque banks of the Elbe with their green dykes.

Bruges: UNESCO World Heritage Site

Be it English cloth merchants, Hamburg's moneybags or traders from Castile, trade has been at the heart of life in this Hanseatic city for centuries. Even today there are still great shopping opportunities in the charming medieval old town of Bruges. As you stroll past ramparts, windmills and romantic canals, you will discover all sorts of artistic and culinary delights in the small boutique shops.

A jewel in the Atlantic: Belle-Île-en-Mer

It is easy to imagine that this island was the birthplace of summer; as soon as the sun rises over this Breton isle, the cafés and squares are instantly filled with the friendly chatter of locals, accordion players and women selling their wares at the market. With its serene atmosphere, the port of Le Palais is the perfect place to be discovered individually.

Escape the daily grind on the vibrant coasts of southern France: Barcelona – Nice

A little break from the daily grind

It is amazing how quickly a sailing cruise can remove you from the everyday hustle and bustle of life! Once the wind swells the sails and the SEA CLOUD II sets off into the distant horizon, you step into a whole new, unique world. No matter whether you are keen to enjoy the authentic windjammer atmosphere on board or discover the charming cities onshore, hundreds of new insights will turn your little break into a wonderful experience.

Savoir-vivre on the French Riviera

The French Riviera is characterised by its outdoor life. The bright blue sky provides the perfect setting for a social chat on the street or a glass of pastis in the harbour. This carefree savoir-vivre is not just a privilege of the high society who made the Côte d'Azur their playground in the 1960s. Optimism is quite the custom here – and the relaxed attitude is infectious.

Insider tip: charming Hyères

In contrast to the lively coastal towns of Nice and St Tropez, Hyères is a charming place that does not seek the limelight so much. This little town offers a rather more tranquil atmosphere and enchants visitors with its authentic Mediterranean flair. From Place Massillon a maze of streets leads up the slope and the pastel-coloured houses are decorated with stone doors and window frames.

Revel in the gold of Sicily, the treasures of Sardinia and two enchanting Balearic islands: Malta – Málaga

Syracuse: UNESCO World Heritage Site

Cicero once described Syracuse as “the greatest and most beautiful of the Greek cities”. Up to a million people – three times the population of mighty Athens – are claimed to have lived there in antiquity. This city on the small island of Ortigia was later conquered first by the Romans, then by Arabs, Byzantines and Normans. They have left behind a unique architectural heritage: UNESCO declared Syracuse a World Heritage Site in 2005 due to its archaeological importance.

A masterwork of mosaics: the Cappella Palatina

The narrow streets of Palermo’s historic centre with their rattling Vespa scooters and vivacious market women lead to the impressive Norman palace. Inside it you will find the famous Cappella Palatina. Its richness is simply overwhelming: The erstwhile royal chapel is decorated with elements of both Christian and Islamic style, artistic carvings and marble floors. It contains an inner room which is entirely covered with precious golden mosaics.

La Seu – Palma’s Gothic cathedral

In 1230, at a site once occupied by a mosque, construction work began on the famous cathedral of St Maria in Palma de Mallorca, otherwise known as “La Seu”. Initially built in a pure Gothic style, with spires stretching up to the sky, this cathedral was given a few “modern” touches over the course of the centuries. And at the beginning of the 20th century some of the building’s interior rooms were redesigned by none other than Gaudí.

A taste of the Atlantic between Andalusia and the Canary Islands: Málaga – Las Palmas

Under full sails to the Canary Islands

Imagine the wind gusting through the yards, the blue expanse of the ocean and the gentle swaying of the three-masted ship as it crosses the sea: Each journey aboard the SEA CLOUD II is a captivating experience. Anyone who dreams of crossing the Atlantic on a tall ship, but is not quite ready to embark on the long voyage, can get a feel for a transatlantic adventure on this journey from the Spanish mainland to the Canary Islands.

Cádiz: rich in history and with plenty of flair

As one of the oldest cities in western Europe, Cádiz has a turbulent history. After the Phoenicians, who founded the city in the eighth century BC, came the Carthaginians, Romans, Visigoths and Moors. The lookout turrets of the city palaces still testify today to the glory days of the trading city and the cheerful charm of the city's old town. A lively hustle and bustle fills the picturesque alleys, quaint tapas bars and many small squares. The neighbouring city of Jerez de la Frontera, the homeland of sherry, is also worth a visit.

Lanzarote and its famous architect

With his vision of a harmonious link between mankind and nature, César Manrique transformed Lanzarote into a work of art. This surrealist painter, architect, sculptor, designer and conservationist created colourful wind chimes and wall mosaics, turned lava caves into homes and tirelessly fought to ensure the preservation of the natural and cultural identity of his island of birth.

Sail around the Canary Islands alongside the legendary SEA CLOUD: Las Palmas – Las Palmas

Two tall ships, one course

Our two tall ships meet at sea – and then we set sail together! Both ships hoist the main sail and glide side by side over the waves, the two eagles positioned on each bow flying together for one whole day at sea. Once we reach La Gomera you will also have the opportunity to visit our tall ship's legendary sibling.

Escape the autumn weather

When it gets cold and grey at home, and wet autumn leaves start gathering on the pavement, we all slowly but surely start to long for a few hours of sunshine. Where better to make your dreams of summer come true than on a majestic windjammer as it sails through southerly waters. Those looking to soak up a few days of sunshine before winter sets in will find the perfect spot aboard the promenade deck of the SEA CLOUD II.

Experience a tall ship sailing adventure at first hand while crossing the Atlantic: Las Palmas – Curaçao

An authentic sailing experience

Crossing the Atlantic on a traditional tall ship is an experience that leaves a lasting impression. For 17 days your exact course is determined only by the elements. When the crew set the sails at dizzying heights, the wind is caught in the sailcloth and the ropes creak as they are stretched tight, you will experience a tangible sense of freedom.

Following in Columbus' footsteps

What would have been going through Columbus' mind as he set sail in 1492? It is virtually impossible to sail across the Atlantic in the discoverer's footsteps without constantly considering his thoughts and ideas. Columbus had not yet discovered the trade winds which provide ideal sailing conditions in the westerly direction during the winter months, but nowadays we know that they will provide the SEA CLOUD II with idyllic sailing on its way to the Caribbean.

Relax and enjoy

Great adventures do not always have to mean great effort. For 17 days we sail a westwards course across the Atlantic, always heading towards a magnificent sunset. It is not long before you will start to sit back and relax; surrounded by vast horizons and looked after by an attentive crew, the stress of daily life will be left behind in no time at all.

A lecturer accompanies the trip

Our lecturer will come thoroughly prepared for the two weeks at sea, ready to give you fascinating insights into his/her area of expertise as part of varied and entertaining talks.

Sail with the trade winds to pastel-coloured paradises, to Panama and Costa Rica: Curaçao – Puerto Limón (San José)

Idyllic sailing along the trade winds

In winter and spring the Caribbean trade winds provide ideal speeds and perfect stability while delivering extremely pleasant air and water temperatures. The many hours out at sea will turn into a real joy for the tall ship, and a delight for those looking to enjoy freedom beneath the sails. All this in stunning waters.

Visit two of the ABC islands: Aruba and Curaçao

Aruba and Curaçao make up the A and C of the ABC islands and belong to the Kingdom of the Netherlands. Their distinctive features – including Delft tiles, Dutch gable houses, palms and the pastel colours of the Caribbean – make this an enchanting destination. Curaçao boasts a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the shape of its small capital Willemstad.

Panama City and the Panama Canal

When the Panama Canal opened in 1914 after more than 30 years of construction, it allowed ships sailing between New York and Los Angeles to shorten their route by almost 15,000 kilometres (9,320 miles). Panama City has experienced enormous growth ever since. The contrast between its ultra-modern banking centre and lovingly restored historic quarters is what makes the city Central America's style capital.

Through the Panama Canal to the unique natural treasures of Costa Rica and Panama.

Panama City and the Panama Canal

It took 30 eventful years for the Panama Canal to be finally completed. In 2014, this huge construction is celebrating its 100th anniversary and the new three-tier lock system is also set to be brought into service. Travelling through the canal during the day is a very special experience. Panama City is the latest top destination in Central America and also an absolute must-see, with its historical quarters and the ultra-modern centre creating an appealing contrast.

Costa Rica's and Panama's Pacific coast: perfect sailing waters

The Pacific coast is blessed with an abundance of natural beauty, reliable winds, outstanding anchorages, lush green coasts and radiant sunshine. Columbus named Costa Rica "La Huerta", or "the garden", and the name is just as fitting today as it was back then.

The Coiba National Park

The Coiba National Park is one of the largest marine national parks in the world and was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2005. Made up of 38 smaller islands and the larger Coiba Island, the park is home to many indigenous plant and animal species. And as this is also the ideal habitat for marine wildlife, you are more than likely to encounter one of the park's 23 whale and dolphin species.

The picture-perfect beaches of Costa Rica and Panama

On the tranquil coasts of Costa Rica and Panama, unforgettable natural scenery and beautiful relaxing beaches can be found just a few steps away from one another. Paradisiacal conservation areas blend into charming bays, and shady palms line the beaches as if on a picture postcard. What is more, if you really just want to relax, you will find the perfect place to do so in the soft sand of Coiba, Tortuga and the Islas de las Perlas.

The Corcovado National Park: one of the most picturesque areas of Costa Rica

Stretching out into the Pacific Ocean, the Osa Peninsula is home to one of Costa Rica's unspoiled rainforests. Gigantic trees reach up to 80 metres (262 feet) into the air, while around 400 different species of bird fill the skies. The forest is also home to a host of other wildlife including tapirs, pumas, jaguars, ocelots and anteaters.

Granada – a UNESCO World Heritage Site

Situated picturesquely at the foot of a volcano and on the shore of a lake, the Nicaraguan town of Granada never ceases to conjure up stunning views of the natural and the man-made. Founded by the Spanish in 1524, it was one of the most influential towns in Central America for around 200 years. It is still considered an insider tip among the region's colonial pearls. The significance of its historical legacy has earned it a very special seal of approval: a place on the UNESCO World Heritage Site List.

A lecturer accompanies the trip

The fascinating flora and fauna in Costa Rica's national parks are bound to throw up questions. Therefore, a scientist with a detailed knowledge of the region's various ecosystems will be on hand to answer them. He will give presentations and accompany the shore excursions.

We also kindly request that guests refrain from wearing shorts at evening meals. Terms and Conditions of Travel of the Company
SEA CLOUD CRUISES GmbH in its capacity as Tour Organizer for SY SEA CLOUD and SY SEA CLOUD II

Dear Guest,

We hope that you have found the appropriate vacation trip in our programme, and we welcome you to the exclusive circle of SEA CLOUD CRUISES GmbH (SCC) guests. Please read the following carefully so that you will know exactly what you can expect from us. The information and conditions regulate the contractual relationship between you and us, and you shall recognize them with your reservation. We are striving to relieve you of troubles and worries in as far as humanly possible. The delineation of our responsibility is designed to provide clarity regarding what you may expect and our liability.

Information and Conditions

1. Application and Travel Confirmation

1.1. Via your tour application, you are offering SCC, in a binding manner, the opportunity to close a travel agreement. Your tour registration may transpire in writing. The travel agreement will only become binding from the time that we confirm the reservation and the price to you or your travel agent in writing.

1.2. The applicant is liable for all contractual obligations of other tour participants that he registers provided that he has expressly confirmed to do so.

1.3. You shall receive a travel confirmation upon conclusion of the contract or without delay thereafter. The confirmation shall contain all essential information regarding travel performances you have reserved, provided that said information does not already follow from the travel brochure.

1.4. All personal data, which you submit to us for handling your trip, is subject to the provisions of the Federal Data Protection Act. Data will be protected against improper use.

1.5. If the subject-matter of the confirmation of the holiday deviates from the subject-matter of the booking, then a new offer by SCC is in existence to which it is bound for the duration of 10 days. The contract comes into existence on the basis of this new offer if the traveller declares his acceptance to SCC in writing or by payment within the commitment period.

2. Payment

2.1. You are required to make a down-payment of 10% per person within one week following receipt of the travel confirmation and the invoice. The remaining balance shall be due for payment four weeks prior to commencement of travel and before receipt of travel documents (tickets, etc.). The entire tour price is due for immediate payment in the event of applications made at short notice.

2.2. If the traveller is in default with a payment to SCC, SCC can cancel the contract. In this case SCC can claim cancellation fees in accordance with paragraph 5.2.

2.3. The travel contract will be cancelled automatically if payment is not received by the beginning of travel. In this instance, SCC will be entitled to demand corresponding cancellation charges as compensation for damages according to paragraph 5.2.

2.4. The customer is required to bear the cost of ancillary performances, such as acquiring a visa, etc., as well as the costs for reservations or inquiries made by telephone or telephone.

2.5. All payments must be made directly to SCC. The travel agency is not authorized to receive payments. Payments to the intermediary travel agency will be made at the traveller's own risk and will have no debt-discharging effect should the travel agency fail to forward the payments to SCC.

3. Performances and Prices

3.1. The scope of contractual performances arises from the travel itinerary and from the travel confirmation.

3.2. Service package

Included are:

- cruise in the reserved cabin including full board and soft drinks. Table wines are included at meal times;
- all transfers and luggage transport mentioned in the programme;
- all overnight stays mentioned in the programme;
- all meals mentioned in the programme;
- all sightseeing tours mentioned in the programme (German or English), if not stated otherwise;
- harbour and docking fees.

The following items are not included:

tips, excess baggage, additional meals, beverages (so far as not expressly included), optional excursions, other personal expenses.

3.3. Flights

SCC only arranges flights as intermediary if this is expressly stated in the confirmation of travel. Carriage is booked in the Tourist Class; also in the Business or First Class at extra tariff cost in as far as these are available. Flights on days other than the travel days booked e.g. as a result of pre- or post-programmes can lead to extra costs. The airlines always only accept seat reservations as non-binding wishes.

The conditions of carriage of the airlines for whose flights we act as intermediary are binding. We shall be pleased to provide these to you on request.

Depending on the selection of flights it can happen that the outward flight is in the late afternoon or evening, but the return flight is in the morning. There is no claim for compensation for catering services not used at the location.

3.4. Baggage conveyance

Up to 20 kg baggage per flight passenger will be conveyed (First Class 30 kg). For travel to some countries (incl. USA, Canada, Mexico and within Germany) measurements are based not on the weight, but instead on the number of baggage items and their dimensions. Excess baggage can in principle be carried at extra cost. Children under the age of two have no claim to baggage conveyance.

Please report damage or delays in delivery promptly on the spot to the relevant airline via a Property Irregularity Report (P.I.R.). The report is a prerequisite for any liability.

3.5. Services not used by traveller

SCC shall endeavour to obtain reimbursement of saved costs from the service provider if the traveller fails to utilize travel services due to premature return journey and in other significant cases. This shall not apply if services are fully irrelevant or if a refund is opposed by legal or official regulations. SCC is entitled to retain 20% of the refundable amount as compensation for additional effort and expenses.

4. Modification of Services and Prices

4.1. A change of airline company, of aircraft or of the departure and arrival airport may become necessary should an airline cancel a flight and e.g. in the event of failure of the airline to comply with the flight schedule. Right is retained to effect such kind of change or modification in such or similar instances.

Only costs, equivalent to a second class railroad journey, will be refunded in the event of substitute transportation.

4.2. Changes in the trip's itinerary are possible for ship voyages, e.g. in case of floodings or low water level, inclement weather conditions, governmental regulations, if the vessel could not adhere to its schedule at the time that travel commences because of an unforeseen technical defect that causes postponement of the trip itinerary, if the vessel's management alters the vessel's course in the interest of passengers' safety or any other special reason related to the ship travel. In any such cases SCC has the right to make use of other means of transportation such as but not limited to coaches and buses for some routes.

4.3. Any such and comparable divergences from and modifications to individual travel performances contained in the travel agreement, which become necessary after the agreement is closed, and which are not induced by SCC contrary to the principles of good faith and trust, are solely permissible, if they are not substantial and if they do not impede the overall tailored style of the reserved trip.

The modified performance shall supersede the performance due under contract. Contingent claims under warranty shall remain unaffected, in as far as substitute performance is flawed.

In the event that the overall tailored style of the reserved trip is unreasonably modified due to said substitute performances, then we shall grant you the option to change your reservations, free of charge, or to cancel the travel agreement without paying any fees. SCC shall undertake to immediately inform you of any such divergences or modifications, in as far as possible.

4.4. SCC reserves the right to alter the indicated prices, which have been confirmed on booking, in the case of an increase of transportation costs or of fees for particular services, such as port or airport charges, bunker surcharges, insurance fees or in the case of an alteration of the exchange rates applicable to the holiday in question, to the extent to which this increase has an effect on the price of the holiday per person or per seat, provided more than four months lie between the conclusion of the contract and the stipulated date of the holiday.

In the case of a subsequent amendment to the price of the holiday or of an amendment to an essential travel service, SCC must inform the traveller accordingly without delay, at the latest, however, 21 days before commencement of the holiday. Price increases after this period are not permissible. In the case of price increases of more than 5% or in the case of a considerable amendment to an essential travel service, the traveller is entitled to withdraw from the tourist travel contract free of charge or to demand to take a holiday which is at least of the same value, if the tour operator is in a position to offer such a holiday from its range of holidays at no extra cost for the traveller. The customer must assert these rights without delay against SCC after the latter's declaration of the price increase or of the amendment of the travel service.

5. Cancellation, Changing Reservations, Substitute Persons

5.1. You may cancel your trip in writing at any time prior to commencement of travel. Your cancellation notice shall become effective on the date we receive it.

5.2. If one of the parties cancels the contract or if you do not start the journey, SCC may demand reasonable compensation for arrangements it has made in conjunction with the trip and for its expenses, even if SCC has not yet confirmed the trip or if you fail to begin the journey. Our flat rate claim to reimbursement consists of a processing fee of EUR 25.00 per person for cancellation of a reserved trip up to 150 days prior to commencement of travel. The following annulment fees shall arise in the event of later cancellation:

- 25% of the tour price for cancellation 149 – 50 days prior to commencement of travel;
- 35% of the tour price for cancellation 49 – 22 days prior to commencement of travel;
- 55% of the tour price for cancellation 21 – 15 days prior to commencement of travel;
- 80% of the tour price for cancellation 14 days or less prior to commencement of travel;
- 90% of the tour price for cancellation on the same day as the commencement of travel or failure to appear.

Costs that the service provider charges to SCC, e.g., empty bed fee charged by a hotel for cancellation at short notice or special fees for cruises, shall be additionally invoiced in the event that individual or group trips are annulled.

The traveller is free to prove to SCC that SCC has no loss or that the loss is less than the aforementioned flat rate. In this case the lower proven loss will be applied in place of the flat. SCC reserves the right to charge reimbursement fees beyond the flat rates mentioned above.

In this case SCC has to verify and prove the loss, taking any expenses that have been saved and/or any other potential uses for the travel services into consideration.

5.3. We will endeavour to modify the travel registration (change reservations) subject to availability, at your request, up to 75 days prior to commencement of travel.

Any change of reservations made as of the 74th day prior to commencement of travel will require you to serve notice that you are cancelling the reserved trip, and it will require subsequent re-registration. This shall not apply for requested changes of reservations that solely cause substantiated, minor expenses.

Modification of the travel date, the travel destination, accommodations or the means of transportation shall apply as a change of reservations.

5.4. You may appoint a substitute person for yourself up to commencement of travel. In such case you are required to inform the tour organizer thereof. The tour organizer may object to any such substitute person on the basis of good cause, (e.g., special requirements linked to the trip, statutory bans, refusal by airlines or by hotel operators, etc.). If a third party enters into the contract, then he or she and the registrant are jointly and severally liable in respect of SCC for the price of the holiday and for additional costs incurred through the entry of the third party.

5.5. Cancellation fees and fees for changing reservations are due for immediate payment.

6. Cancellation and Rescission of Agreement by the Tour Organizer

6.1. SCC may rescind the travel agreement after commencement of travel, without complying with a term of notice, if travellers persistently disturb execution of the trip despite an appropriate warning issued by the tour organizer. The same shall apply if anyone should behave in a manner which is gravely in breach of contract and justifies the immediate cancellation. In addition SCC has the right to cancel the travel contract without notice if in the captain's opinion the traveller is unfit for travel due to illness, physical disability or for any other reason or if the traveller requires special assistance but is travelling without this assistance or if the trip has been booked based on incorrect information. SCC shall, however, after cancellation retain its claim to the tour price. The person causing the disturbance is liable for any possible extra cost for return transportation.

However, SCC is required to allow credit for the value of saved costs as well as for advantages which may be obtained from another application of services not used, including possible reimbursements from service providers.

6.2. SCC may rescind the trip up to two weeks prior to commencement of travel due to failure to obtain the minimum number of participants if (a) the minimum number of participants in the brochure is stated as well as the point in time by which the traveller must be informed of the withdrawal prior to the contractually agreed-upon commencement of the travel and (b) the number of minimum participants as well as the latest date of possible cancellation are clearly stated in the travel confirmation or reference is made to the respective travel description where such information is stated. The cancellation notice will be immediately forwarded to you. Your paid tour price will be immediately refunded.

7. Rescission of the Contract due to exceptional Circumstances

7.1. SCC or the traveller may both rescind the travel agreement if the trip is rendered considerably difficult, endangered or impeded due to an Act of Providence, (e.g., war, internal unrest, natural catastrophes). SCC shall immediately refund the paid tour price in such instance.

However, SCC may demand compensation for rendered or outstanding travel performances.

7.2. If a trip is cancelled subsequent to commencement of travel, then the tour organizer is obligated to undertake appropriate measures, and he is especially obligated to provide return transportation for travellers, if possible. The contracting parties shall each bear one half of the costs for return transportation. The traveller will be required to bear all additional expenses.

8. Liability

8.1. We shall bear liability within the scope of the due diligence of a prudent businessman:

8.1.1. for conscientious preparation of the trip;

8.1.2. for careful selection and monitoring of service providers, (e.g., transportation corporations, hotel operators, etc.);

8.1.3. for due and proper rendering of contractually covenanted tour performances, under consideration of applicable legal provisions of the respective country and place of destination.

8.2. However, we are not liable for information contained in hotel and local site brochures. We have no influence on their origin. We also bear no liability if national political conditions and contingent entry regulations change at the point of destination, after this brochure is printed, that encumber entry into the affected country or point of destination or which render the same infeasible. We shall inform you at short notice of any such essential, subsequent changes, in as far as possible.

8.3. We are liable for the fault of a person entrusted with rendering a service, unless otherwise stipulated under these Terms and Conditions of Travel or stipulated by prevailing conditions, and provided that the person entrusted to render service had caused an instance of damage not only upon the occasion of performing contract. The measure of indebted diligence shall be determined by conditions at the site of service rendered. Your tour will primarily take you to foreign countries, where foreign living conditions and where laws, that are partially foreign to us, prevail.

8.4. Scope of liability

SCC is not liable for faulty performances among mediated third party services, provided that expressed reference is made to mediated services in the travel documents and on the travel confirmation. Having stated this requirement, the following provisions shall solely apply for flights for which the traveller receives a corresponding ticket:

SCC, in its capacity as a mediator, is not liable for performance of transportation services, rather the corporate carrier is responsible. SCC is not an air freight carrier. The liability of airline companies is based on their own terms and conditions of transportation, which can be provided by SCC upon request. For all remaining purposes, airlines' liability is restricted by international conventions and regulations, e.g., by the Warsaw Convention and EU Directive No. 295/91 dated February 4, 1991. We will send these to you upon request. Liability for damages caused by delay is excluded.

8.5. Warranty

8.5.1. The traveller may demand relief if the tour is not performed in compliance with contract. SCC may refuse relief if it necessitates disproportionate expense.

8.5.2. After returning from the tour, the traveller may demand reduction of the tour price, commensurate with reduced performance, in the event that the demand for relief was unsuccessful and the trip was not performed in compliance with contract. This shall not affect contingent, more extensive claims for subsequent reduction of the tour price.

8.5.3. The traveller may rescind the travel agreement if the tour organizer failed to perform relief, within a reasonable term, or if the tour organizer formally states that relief cannot be performed, and if the trip will be considerably impaired due to performance of services under noncompliance with contract. If the agreement is rescinded in this manner, then SCC is obligated to take appropriate measures, and especially to provide return transportation for travellers, if required.

8.6. The traveller may demand compensation for damages, and more precisely for vacation time spent to no avail, provided that the tour organizer is liable for a circumstance that caused a flaw in the tour.

8.7. Restriction of liability

8.7.1. The tour operator's contractual liability is limited to three times the tour price, provided that damages sustained by the traveller are not caused by intent or gross negligence. The same applies in as far as the tour organizer is responsible for damages incurred by a traveller solely through the fault of a service provider.

8.7.2. The tour organizer is not liable for defective performances that arise in conjunction with services mediated as third party performances, (e.g., sporting events, attendance at theatres, exhibitions, etc.), and which are expressly identified as third party performances in the brochure.

8.7.3. A claim to damage against the tour organizer is restricted or excluded, if – under legal provisions applicable to required, rendered performances of a service provider – a claim for damage against a service provider may solely be asserted under certain conditions or limitations or if such claim is excluded under certain conditions.

8.7.4. If the tour organizer assumes a position equivalent to a freight carrier, then his liability shall be regulated by the provisions of the Air Transportation Act in conjunction with Conventions covenanted in Warsaw, The Hague, Guadalajara and the Montreal

Agreement (solely for flights to Canada and the USA). As a rule, the Warsaw Convention limits the freight carrier's liability for death or physical injury and for loss and damage of baggage. If the tour organizer constitutes a service provider, in other instances, then he shall bear liability in accordance with provisions that apply for a service provider.

8.7.5. If the tour organizer assumes a position equivalent to a carrier, within the scope of sea voyages, then his liability shall be regulated in compliance with provisions of the Commercial Code and the Inland Waterways Transportation Act.

8.8. Duty to cooperate, complaints

8.8.1. In the event of defective performance, each traveller is required to undertake whatever may be reasonably expected of him to contribute to alleviate the defect and to keep any potential damages to a minimum.

8.8.2. If you should have reason for complaints, contrary to our expectations, then immediately inform our tour management on site. If a respective local tour manager or tour agent is not available or cannot be reached, or if they cannot alleviate a defective performance, then please turn to the service provider (transfer company, hotel operator) and/or the tour organizer or to his contact address in the area of destination. A traveller is not entitled to claims if he culpably fails to perform the above obligations.

8.8.3. Tour guides are not authorized to formally recognize any claims whatsoever.

9. Exclusion of Claims and Statute of Limitation

9.1. Your claims are to be asserted within one month following the contractually covenanted date of return. Claims are to be stated in writing and forwarded to SEA CLOUD CRUISES GmbH, An der Alster 9, 20099 Hamburg, Germany. You may only assert claims after expiration of the above term, if you were hindered from complying with the deadline through no fault of your own.

9.2. All claims arising from the travel agreement shall lapse one year following the contractually covenanted date of return.

9.3. Claims for damages due to prohibited actions shall lapse in two years.

9.4. The statute of limitations is suspended if the tour organizer initially states to you that complaints and claims are being examined. The suspension is lifted when the tour organizer informs the customer of the results of his examination with regard to the customer's claims.

10. Insurance Coverage

10.1. You are insured against transportation risk during flights, within the scope of lawful provisions.

10.2. For your own safety, we recommend that you take out a travel insurance policy that includes cancellation, interruption, health, baggage, accident and liability coverage.

11. Passport, Visa, Customs, Foreign Exchange and Health Regulations

11.1. You will receive essential information on the formalities required for your trip. This information will be conveyed along with travel documents and through the travel description contained in the catalogue. Please heed this information, as each traveller is himself responsible for compliance with these regulations.
