WED	18-JAN	AT SEA SPA DAY
THU	19-JAN	HONG KONG, CHINA	7:00 AM

Buzzing motorbikes, temples smoky with incense, French colonial architecture, lost-in-time villages, and neon-lit nightlife. It's all part of the experience of Southeast Asia, where you can sink your toes into a white tropical beach one day and gaze on a giant gold Buddha the next. See the culture past and present in floating markets and night markets, countryside bike rides, elegant French Vietnamese dining, and a night out in Bangkok. Enjoy options for four remarkable World Heritage Sites: Angkor Wat's temples, Halong Bay's dreamlike karsts and fishing villages, ancient Hue on the Perfume River, and the old trading center of Hoi An.

13 NIGHTS THAILAND & VIETNAM

Located some 900 miles off the East African coast, the island nation of the Seychelles has been called "Eden on Earth" and that pretty much sums it up. You'll have three days for secluded white beaches, crystal green waters, and virgin jungles with more endemic species than any place else on earth (rare black parrots, blue pigeons, and giant tortoises, to name a few). For shops and markets, visit little Victoria, where a cracked-open coconut with a straw is its own kind of paradise. The other ports on this voyage aren't exactly wallflowers: Explore the peaceful backwaters of Kochi, the tiny coral isle of Kuda Bandos in the Maldives, and Sri Lanka's World Heritage monasteries, cave temples, and rainforests.

The surreal beauty of these desert lands will stay with you long after your voyage ends. We'll show you rare frankincense trees, a green desert oasis, the extraordinary landscapes of Wadi Rum, and dolphins frolicking in the Red Sea. See magnificent Luxor Temple and the Valley of the Kings on the Nile River, the holy sites of Jerusalem and Bethlehem, Masada Fortress, and serenely beautiful Petra. Learn the ways of the desert on small-group excursions, shop for local goods in the souks, and soak up the resort lifestyle of Eilat on the Red Sea. After transiting the Suez Canal, see the ancient mosaics on Paphos or visit the divided capital of Nicosia.

TUE	6-JUN	SAINT-TROPEZ, FRANCE	8:00 AM	1:00 PM
WED	7-JUN	BARCELONA, SPAIN	6:00 AM

Ten days, nine classic Mediterranean ports. Each will try to outdo the next, but that's the way these Mediterranean ports are—showy and impressive. Late stays let you experience things other cruise travelers miss: a dazzling sunset from Oia on Santorini, a hike in the Samaria Gorge (an incredible experience if you're in good shape), a leisurely day on Capri, or a walk through Pompeii, with time to explore Sorrento, too. You'll also have late stays for visits to Rome, Florence, or medieval Lucca, a town that can be explored on foot, or a bike ride within the medieval walls. With great cities on both ends, this is a first-rate adventure.

TUE	13-JUN +	LISBON, PORTUGAL	1:30 PM
WED	14-JUN	LISBON, PORTUGAL	DISSEMBARK

The sun on your back, fresh sea air, friendly little towns, and local tapas and wines. All the simple pleasures of life can be found here. Stroll Menorca's little village, beaches, and hiking trails, and Alcudia's long bay front and old-town market stalls (look for handmade Mallorcan leather shoes). Be sure to sample Balearic tapas, made from locally raised pork, cheeses, and produce, perfect with a glass of local wine. There's a lot to love about Cadiz, an ancient town with excellent seafood restaurants, pretty beaches, and nearby mountain villages that produce olive oils and serve local game in the restaurants. In Lisbon, explore historic old quarters and enjoy an evening of tapas, wine, and fado.

Geiranger Fjord sets the stage for stunning scenery and lost-in-time adventures ahead. The centerpiece is Iceland, with one day for otherworldly volcanic landscapes near Akureyri, another for Reykjavik's steaming blue geothermal springs and nightlife, and a third for scenic cruising. The Shetlands offer a smorgasbord of stunning coastal and inland adventures, and you will be equally happy exploring the lively port town of Lerwick. The Faroes feel even wilder, with grass-roofed cottages, majestic mountains, streams spilling over green plateaus, and ancient timber-and-stone homes in tiny Tinganes.

Attending the British Open Finals at Royal Birkdale is just one of many attractions on this Irish Sea voyage (British Open tickets included in PerryGolf package, extra for others). Discover Cork's thriving culinary and bar scene, hike in Snowdonia National Park and England's Lake District, search for Nessie at Loch Ness, and tour distilleries and castles on the Isle of Skye. Visit capital cities of Dublin, Belfast, and Edinburgh, and shop for wool goods, Waterford crystal, and single malt Scotch. These are lands of legendary pubs, so sample a pint or dram whenever possible. Golf guests can choose from either of two flights, each including six rounds of golf. Of course, PerryGolf's cruise staff will be on board and ashore to oversee all aspects of your golf experience, from daily pairings to the handling of your golf clubs.

GOLF PACKAGE OPTIONAL. 23-JULY: NO GOLF, ATTENDING BRITISH OPEN.

Follow the summer sun to Scandinavia's leafy parks and St. Petersburg's glittering palaces, and enjoy our partnership with the renowned golf travel experts at PerryGolf. Once the sleepest of Scandinavian capitals, Copenhagen is now blooming with new restaurants, galleries, and nightlife. Shop for amber in the red brick city of Gdansk and stroll the old town of Tallinn, crowded with artisans' shops, cafes, and bars. Join guided tours to great imperial monuments and the Hermitage in St. Petersburg, with time for an optional visit to Moscow. Stroll the Esplanade or shop in tech- and design-centric Helsinki. Experience summer at its peak as you sail through thousands of islands in Stockholm's Archipelago. Our golf is equally impressive, including The Scandinavian by Robert Trent Jones II, the exceptional Bro Hoff Slott Stadium Course in Sweden, plus Gorki Golf Club, the first and currently only championship golf course in northwest Russia. PerryGolf's cruise staff will be on board to oversee all aspects of the golf program, from daily pairings to the handling of your clubs.

Our partnership with the renowned golf travel experts at PerryGolf continues on this voyage. These sun-kissed coasts have cooler temperatures and fewer tourists in autumn, a definite plus for roaming ancient towns, dining in popular local restaurants, and playing golf. In every port you'll have fantastic touring choices: Alcudia's old town markets or mountain region, the surreal Dali museum or old Girona, the seaside town of Collioure or ancient Carcassonne. You'll also have options for day trips to Madrid and Seville. See historic cities including Cadiz with its watchtowers, Valencia's great plazas and Gothic gates, and Carcassonne's massive fortified town. Along the way, feast on paella, tapas, cassoulet, and world-class wines. Our golf is equally impressive including Valderrama, consistently rated #1 in continental Europe, plus PGA Catalunya ranked narrowly behind. The well-regarded Spanish layouts of Montecastillo, El Saler, and Son Muntaner on the Spanish island of Mallorca complete the five-round program. Of course, PerryGolf's cruise staff will be on board and ashore to oversee all aspects of your golf experience, from daily pairings to the handling of your golf clubs.

Maybe you've never had yacht envy. We'll change that with a visit to the world's largest yacht show in Monaco, where new, customized, and classic yachts vie for the attention of well-heeled buyers. We admit to a little envy ourselves after seeing the interiors of these beauties. Surrounding the show are visits to chic Saint-Tropez, Nice, and the seductive Italian Riviera towns of St. Margherita and Portofino, ports where a new yacht would fit right in. You'll also enjoy two days for art, shopping, and dining in Florence, Pisa, and medieval Lucca.

You'll love these favorite Mediterranean ports without the summer crowds. Join small-group Amalfi Coast tours to farms, restaurants, and little towns hugging the seaside cliffs, or spend a day at Capri or Pompeii. Stroll the town of Siracusa—you'll find wonderful markets and produce shops—or visit the beautiful Baroque town of Noto. You'll have a full day to explore Valletta's Renaissance monuments, and another to hike the Samaria Gorge or shop and dine on Chania's Venetian harbor. Enjoy lunch with a stunning view on Santorini, or visit the excavations of Akrotiri, a fishing village unearthed from volcanic ash.

MON	16-OCT	SANTORINI (AKROTIRI), GREECE	8:00 AM	5:00 PM
TUE	17-OCT	PIRAEUS (ATHENS), GREECE	3:00 AM

Island-hop the Grecian way through azure waters and rocky coastlines to the Aegean's small villages and ancient cities. Athens is your starting point, and ending location for that matter, providing plenty of time to explore the Acropolis and the Temple of Hephaestus. In lovely Patmos, you can set foot where Revelation is said to have been inspired. The ruins of Ephesus offer a look back in time to the 10th century BC. Rhodes has history of its own, and was once home to the 100' statue of the Greek god of sun, Helios. Although this ancient wonder was destroyed in an earthquake, its memory remains and brings 300 days of sunshine to the island a year. Next, visit Santorini's breathtaking villages or the remarkable excavation of Akrotiri, an ancient fishing village discovered under a mountain of volcanic ash. It's seven truly historic nights on one voyage.

11 NIGHTS | GREECE & ISRAEL ADVENTURE

FRI	27-OCT	SANTORINI, GREECE	8:00 AM	5:00 PM
SAT	28-OCT	PIRAEUS (ATHENS), GREECE	3:00 AM

This action-packed voyage is like falling into a time machine, and at the end you may wonder, "Did I really see all that in less than two weeks?" Yes, and that's why this tour de force through history is not to be missed. Cities of gods, goddesses, and apostles; cities of great learning and invention; holy cities, and places of mystery and contemplation. It's all included. The itinerary speaks for itself, so we'll call out just a few highlights: the whitewashed Holy Island of Patmos, romantic Nafplio, and three days for the holy sights of Jerusalem, Bethlehem, and Nazareth. Don't miss this remarkable stroll through time.

Relive history dating back to 7th century BC as you travel a route frequented by ancient spice traders with 17 nights of unique cultural opportunities. Piraeus, Greece, Europe's oldest city, is your starting point. A tour of Athens' landmark sites and ruins, including the Acropolis, Parthenon, and Temple of Olympian Zeus shouldn't be missed. From there, it's off to Agios Nikolaos, a small coastal town on the Greek Island of Crete, before a day spent sailing through the remarkable Suez Canal. How do you get a 690-guest ship across the desert? Come find out.

The other side of the Suez Canal features an overnight in Luxor, Egypt. Known as "the world's greatest open air museum," Luxor's stunning monuments, temples, and tombs have so many stories to tell. An evening sailing the Red Sea leads to another overnight, this time in Aqaba, Jordan, giving you the chance to experience Petra, an ancient city carved into the side of the Nabataeans' mountain—Destination Immersion at its finest. Several sea days, both on the Red Sea and the Arabian Sea, are complemented with stops in Oman, a country both exotic and modern. An overnight in futuristic Dubai, UAE, brings this voyage to a close. Indoor skiing, anyone?

Everything is saturated in color on this old trading route: tropical beaches and rainforests, saris, Kathakali performers, spices and teas. Rise early in Mumbai to tour British colonial monuments and the Thieves Market, or take a boat ride to the ancient cave carvings at Elephanta Island. You'll love Goa's old colonial town and beaches, the peaceful backwaters of Kerala, and the murals of Mattancherry Palace. Sri Lanka is a wonderland of World Heritage Sites, including Kandy, must-see Sigiriya, wildlife sanctuaries, and rainforests. Re-enter the modern world at Kuala Lumpur, where you'll find tasty local food, shopping, and the soaring Petronas Twin Towers. Your voyage concludes in Singapore, where the range of upscale shopping options is as diverse as the melting pot of cultures that reside there.

On Christmas Day, take a junk ride through the beautiful karsts and floating fishing villages of Halong Bay, returning to the ship for a holiday feast. With two days in Da Nang, visit ancient Hue on the Perfume River and the beautiful old trading village of Hoi An. Savor fine French-Vietnamese cuisine, explore Mekong Delta villages, and discover the night markets of Ho Chi Minh City. Celebrate New Year's Eve onboard (it will be legendary), followed by three days exploring Bangkok's temples and markets, with time for a visit to magnificent Angkor Wat. After all the excitement, you'll love the blissful tropical isle of Ko Samui. Happy holidays.

MON	20-FEB	AT SEA SPA DAY
TUE	21-FEB	SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, USA	6:00 AM

Sunshine, blue lagoons, and golden beaches make this the voyage for those who want to kick back, relax, and enjoy Mexico's most beautiful coastal towns and cities. Embark in San Diego, California, and head down the Baja coast with a stop in Mazatlan, Mexico, "the pearl of the Pacific". A longer stay in La Paz offers time for an eco-tour and a walk downtown past the rows of charming colonial-style houses. In Topolobampo, you can ride the train to Copper Canyon, an amazing group of canyons with a copper-green hue. But no Baja journey is complete without a Mexican buffet, a clambake, and a margarita or three. An overnight in Loreto is the perfect setting for that. After a longer stay in Cabo San Lucas, a beacon of sparkling beaches, seaside dining, and nightlife, you'll spend two days at sea in the breezy 80-degree weather before ending back where it all began.

17 NIGHTS | PANAMA CANAL

FRI	10-MAR	MIAMI, FLORIDA, USA	7:00 AM

We can't think of a better way to travel from San Diego to Miami, the red-hot Latin capital of the U.S. Along the way you can soak up the sun at beach resorts, discover old colonial towns, take a boat ride on a volcanic lake, zip-line in a rainforest, snorkel at pristine Tortuga Island, and transit the Panama Canal. Between adventures, relax with seven days at sea. Compared to overland travel by plane, train, or automobile, it's a hands-down winner.

Anchored by fortress towns surrounded by thousands of islands and wooded coasts, the Adriatic is not only cultured and beautiful, but loads of fun. You'll be awed by the waterfalls of Krka National Park and panoramic cruising through Croatia's Inside Passage. Meet local residents at town markets, on tours to oyster farms and countryside mills, and in waterfront restaurants serving local food and wines often accompanied by musical talent. Your surprise discovery may be Slovenia's capital of Ljubljana, with a beautiful pedestrian-friendly city center encircled by an emerald river. Then back to where you started for an overnight in Venice, with plenty still left to do there.

Nice to Nice with all the best of the Med in between. Discover something new every day as you sail to four Mediterranean countries and the world's most famous little principality. Explore the flower market and waterfront of Nice, Monaco's old town and famous Monte-Carlo Casino, the art and shops of Florence, the monuments of Rome and treasures of the Vatican, to name a few. Love little villages? From Sorrento, visit Pompeii or the stunning hill towns of Amalfi, Ravello, or Positano, and sample the sublime cuisine found on this stretch of coastline. Strollers will love the cobbled streets and views from Taormina, the Renaissance city of Valletta, and the long bay front and old town market at Alcudia (pick up a pair of handmade Mallorcan leather shoes). Don't miss Gaudi's dreamy Sagrada Familia and Barcelona's bustling markets and tapas bars, and from Port-Vendres, go wine tasting and take a tour of ancient Carcassonne. Then back to Nice, and docked right in the center of town.

WED	28-JUN	PIRAEUS (ATHENS), GREECE	5:00 AM

The first thing to notice about ancient cities is that they often have prime locations high on hilltops or nestled against protected harbors, which makes them not only fascinating but also beautiful. This voyage has a powerhouse lineup: the Acropolis of Athens, Lindos and the medieval knights' town on Rhodes; Chania's ancient Venetian harbor; Delos (near Mykonos) and the ancient fishing village of Akrotiri (a reminder that for all the battles, it's often a natural disaster that brings a city to its knees). On Patmos, a peaceful isle where St. John once lived, walk the narrow streets of old Chora town and see rare icons in magnificent St. John Monastery. Many late night stays let you linger for drinks and mezes as the sun sets, enjoying waterfront tavernas and village life.

FRI	14-JUL	VENICE, ITALY	7:00 AM

If travel were a scale, we'd balance it with charm and beauty on one side and learning and discovery on the other. Consider Náplio with its wonderful waterfront cafes and elegant Venetian homes, and so close to prehistoric Mycenae. Or Crete, where you can hike the Samaria Gorge or spend your day shopping and dining along a beautiful Venetian harbor. For cultural explorers, a walk along the historic city walls of Dubrovnik is a must. As is an adventure to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Škocjan Caves, which feature the largest underground canyon in the world. And for all you pleasure seekers, we've arranged five late-night stays to enjoy restaurants and nightlife in ports that light up after dark.

You'll leave this voyage feeling like a local Venetian, with three nights in Venice, right in the middle of the iconic Redentore Festival. The Festa del Redentore, or Feast of the Most Holy Redeemer, celebrates the end of the awful plague of 1576. When we say "celebrate," think 60 full minutes of fireworks, illuminating the Venetian sky and festively decorated boats filling the canals. Italy knows how to throw a party. Then it's on to Kotor, a UNESCO World Heritage Site with cobblestone streets, exquisite churches, and a 1,350-step climb to the top of the town's upper walls. A stop in Corfu where Poseidon took his honeymoon is next, before sailing back to Italy for longer stays in Amalfi and Rome.

SAT	29-JUL	BARCELONA, SPAIN		DEBARK

Italy's scenic countryside, Monte-Carlo's glamour, and Spain's Old World charm collide on this voyage to some of the Mediterranean's most beautiful destinations. A start in Rome allows for a longer pre-voyage stay, to fully take in the many ancient wonders and stunning artwork of the Eternal City. Santa Margherita is a coastal wonder, with classic old hotels and Instagram-worthy palaces. Monte-Carlo provides luxurious allure, as does Saint-Tropez with its mega-yachts lining the harbor. An overnight in Barcelona is barely enough time to explore the masterful Gaudi architecture and enjoy the traditional Catalan cuisine, but with local post-voyage stay options, your one overnight can easily become a few.

7 NIGHTS | WESTERN MEDITERRANEAN HIGHLIGHTS

FRI	4-AUG	LIVORNO (PISA/FLORENCE), ITALY	8:00 AM	7:00 PM
SAT	5-AUG	CIVITAVECCHIA (ROME), ITALY	6:00 AM

Barcelona kicks off this seven-night foray into Spain, France, and Italy. Ibiza's nightlife is legendary, and you can experience it until late in the morning during your overnight stay. Menorca's beaches sparkle with some of the clearest water you've ever seen, and offer an opportunity to escape the crowd and relax. Bonifacio sits atop the hillside of Corsica. Climb to the top, or stay at sea level and tour the amazing Sea Grottoes by boat. Your time in Spain leads to three stops in Italy; first Elba, once Napoleon's home while in exile with his 1,000 men. Then longer stays in Florence and Rome bring this voyage to a close, but not before plenty of time to take a picture with the Leaning Tower of Pisa, and try every flavor of gelato at one of Rome's numerous cafes.

From Gaudi and tapas in Barcelona to the Eternal City, this voyage is perfect for a quick summer break, or if you have more time, for pairing up with the voyage that follows. Sink into luxurious relaxation with two overnights on the French Riviera for shopping, visiting Riviera hill towns or Saint-Tropez beaches by day, and sophisticated dining and nightlife after dark. Discover the colorful cliff-hugging villages of Cinque Terre, a breathtaking testament to human ingenuity. For art, riches, and architecture it's hard to surpass Florence, where you'll also find fine gold jewelry and leather goods shops. As an alternative, visit ancient Lucca or the Tuscan countryside.

You look at travel magazines and think “Yes, I want to go where the scenery is spectacular, the food is amazing, the villages are from a movie set, and ancient cities are from a fairy tale.” Fortunately this is possible, and we’ve done all the planning for a height-of-summer voyage that has it all. Highlights include the Amalfi Coast, Malta’s Renaissance city, Corfu’s gorgeous beaches and bays, scenic cruising to beautiful Kotor at the end of a fjord, and the marble streets and ramparts of Dubrovnik. Small-group tours take you beyond tourist spots to meet the people who keep age-old traditions alive.

Anchored by ancient fortress towns and scenic landscapes, the Adriatic is not only cultured and beautiful, but loads of fun. You'll be awed by the magnificent waterfalls of Krka National Park and panoramic cruising through Croatia's Inside Passage. Each port is filled with centuries-old architecture that is still very inviting (must be all those marble plazas). Mingle with local residents at town markets, on our small-group tours to the countryside, and in waterfront restaurants serving local specialties and wines. Don't miss Ljubljana's beautiful pedestrian- and bike-friendly city center encircled by an emerald river.

September is ideal for visiting places that people really love, because by then most of those people have gone home. The Adriatic is one of those places, and one excursion you shouldn't miss is Ljubljana's strikingly pretty city center. (If only all capital cities were this human-friendly.) Throughout your voyage the scenery is movie-like: Hvar's countryside, Kotor rising at the end of a spectacular fjord, the charming fishing village of Fiskardo, ancient Olympia, Taormina's sweeping views, and the beautiful Amalfi Coast. For an insider's perspective, join us on small-group culinary, wine tasting, and farm tours that will convince you to visit again, and soon.

Begin with an overnight stay in Venice and be swept away by the classic romance of this iconic city. From there, step back in time and marvel at the medieval architecture of Dubrovnik. In Hvar, stroll lavender fields, relax on pristine beaches, and live it up with the best nightlife in Croatia. The city of Kotor in Montenegro offers endless cobblestone streets lined with churches, shops, bars, restaurants, and hidden piazzas. If all that walking tires you out, there are plenty of places to recharge while sipping on unique Montenegrin wines.

From sweeping hillsides to turquoise waters, the isle of Corfu offers unforgettable landscapes. Next up is Valletta, Malta. Don’t let its small size fool you. Despite being less than a square mile, Valletta is one of the most concentrated UNESCO World Heritage Sites in the world. After a day in the chic Sicilian resort town of Taormina, spend two days discovering Italy’s breathtaking Amalfi Coast. Savor some chilled limoncello in the town of Amalfi, or hop in a car and enjoy one of the most picturesque rides of your life. With several pedestrian-only streets, Sorrento is best explored on foot. Shop for local crafts, explore Capri, and discover the frozen-in-time Pompeii.

It's no secret that autumn is a great time to travel. Crowds have thinned, the shopkeepers have time to chat, and you can get reservations at all the best restaurants. We slow down, too, with late-night stays and an overnight, so you can take an art stroll or go shopping in Florence, ride a bike around Lucca's walls, enjoy the playground of the rich and famous in Portofino, gamble at the Casino in Monte-Carlo, or explore the French Riviera hill towns, wineries, and Provence markets ablaze with autumn colors. A stop in Sète is the perfect opportunity to embrace the concept of "far niente", or doing "sweet nothing" in sunny southern France, before your voyage concludes in the old and new city of Barcelona, where you'll find no shortage of things to do.

This is the voyage for those who love travel and love golf, with four stops to play on this 7-night itinerary. Our partnership with PerryGolf, the leader in luxury golf vacations, gives you a chance to play some of the world's top golf courses, with everything from clubs to caddie arrangements handled for you. Of course there's plenty to do for non-golf lovers as well; old-world charm meets modern architecture in Valencia. The lively and stylish capital city, Palma de Mallorca, dates back to Roman times. Take in the beautiful beaches and café-lined streets of Mahon (where it's believed mayonnaise was created back in the 18th century). And visit the fashionable resort town of Porto-Vecchio before your voyage concludes in Rome, which needs no introduction. Yes, as we said, there's plenty to do besides golf. But then again, there's golf.

People may love Paris in the springtime, but there's nothing like the south of Europe in the fall. With all of the summertime tourists at home, you'll get to experience Rome like a local. Then it's on to the port of Livorno for an overnight, so you can explore Florence and Pisa and take your time in both. Next stop, Monte-Carlo and its luxury shops, dining, casino, and great people-watching. Discover the stroll-worthy streets of Ajaccio, Corsica. Then cruise to the heart of the wild coast of Palamós, Spain, where you can take a brief surrealistic side trip to the museum of its native son, Salvador Dali. Your voyage concludes in Barcelona. Be sure to order some tapas.

"The soul of the ship is the crew. Guests walk on and can feel it very quickly. A friendly crew sets the tone, and it becomes a friendly ship among guests, too."

They say you'll come to Azamara Club Cruises for the destinations, but you'll come back for the staff and crew. And what better way to get to know our extraordinary staff and crew – and to have them get to know you – than a transatlantic crossing. Take your time and relax as you enjoy the world-class spa and fitness center, all of our dining options, evenings at the Cabaret Lounge for entertainment, gambling in the casino, tapas, games, and dancing in the Living Room, and the friendly, pampering personal service that our crew is known for.

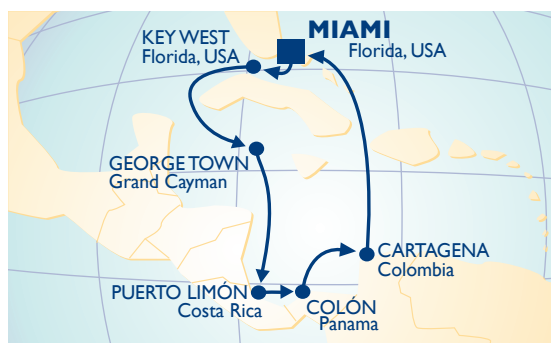

Seven sea crossing days, framed by front-end stops in Gibraltar, UK, and Funchal, Madeira, Portugal, where the food is made from only the freshest ingredients and the people are so joyous and gracious, you'll be sorry you have to leave.

You'll touch shore again in Philipsburg, St. Maarten, an isle of beautiful beaches with the option to test your sailing skills on a shortened America's Cup course. Then it's on to Miami, your final destination, although this is one transatlantic crossing where no one is in any hurry to get there.

Miami to Miami is what the itinerary reads, but everything in between makes this voyage so much fun. Think of it as all play and no work on a voyage that spans the gamut of ancient Mayan temples, river boating through spectacular canyons and rainforests, snorkeling through tropical reefs in an aquamarine sea, swimming with stingrays, lounging on stunning beaches, and shopping in George Town's duty-free shops. Throughout your voyage, enjoy a melting pot of local cultures, friendly people, and tasty food, and then a relaxing stop in Key West before returning to Miami. Like we said, Miami to Miami, with plenty packed in between.

This voyage is all about Caribbean sunsets, in some of our most popular West Indies hideaways. But there's a lot more than sunsets on this voyage. Enjoy the beautiful harbor, fine dining, and luxury shopping on St. Barts and the palm trees and white sand beaches of St. John's, and catch the sunset from atop a volcano in St. Kitts. Then a stop where time stands still, otherwise known as "island time," on the largest of the British Virgin Islands, Tortola. And on to San Juan, PR, for the conclusion of your voyage. Be sure to catch a sunset there.

Itineraries, embarkation and debarkation times may change without notice. Please visit AzamaraClubCruises.com for the most current information.

Hide out in the West Indies for a little while. Bring your walking shoes or become an expert at doing nothing at all. Your voyage begins in San Juan, where Ponce De Leon never did discover the fountain of youth, but he did stumble upon this lovely capital. You may want to arrive early to check out the beaches and Isla Verde, home to some of the city's hottest nightclubs and gourmet restaurants. Then it's off to the largest of the British Virgin Islands, Tortola. Set your watch to island time, or better yet, take it off. Bring your sense of adventure and take a walking tour, or just kick back on some of the best beaches in the Caribbean. There's kite boarding and windsurfing, if you'd like a little of both. Next stop, St. Bart's: a tropical paradise with French flair. Which is why it has always attracted a certain celebrity type. Stroll around and keep an eye out for the rich and famous, or just be one yourself. Cap it all off with some sea days to unwind before your voyage concludes in Miami. This doing nothing at all can wear you out.

There's no place like away from home for the holidays. Or in this case, at sea. If that sounds appealing, this is the voyage for you.

Miami to Miami with Christmas and New Year's in between. Your voyage begins on our own private island in the Bahamas – talk about being away from it all! Then Christmas Eve and Christmas Day at sea. We promise to make you feel special with plenty of holiday food and drink. Nothing like celebrating off the grid.

Next, a stop in St. Barts to rub shoulders with the rich and famous. Or do some shopping to pick up any luxury item you failed to get for Christmas. (Remember, these are the days you can gift yourself.)

From here you'll island hop, enjoying pristine beaches, lush tropical forests, and quaint cobblestone streets. Swim at the dramatic baths at Virgin Gorda, enjoy a proper British tea and gardens at Bridgetown, take a boat tour around Antigua at St. John's. Then New Year's Eve and Day at sea: plenty of food, fun, entertainment, and fireworks, and your hotel room right nearby. Take a day in Key West to recover, and then we head home. Unfortunately, way too soon.
